Mary Baker Eddy and Her Books

by William Dana Orcutt

Here is a valuable record of the early printings of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures. It is a stirring firsthand account. It is also replete with incidents relating to Mrs. Eddy and observations on the part of the author, which bring new and fresh side lights on the achievements and character of this remarkable woman. She was at the same time an inspired author and a businesswoman of wisdom and fortitude.

While Mr. Orcutt was not a member of the Christian Science church, he expresses deep appreciation for the Leader and her work.

EARNING ONE'S WAY

LEONARD T. CARNEY

OBJECTION is sometimes raised concerning "paternalistic" trends in government, that people are thereby encouraged to expect something for nothing—a good living and security without paying the price; that this tendency fosters a desire for benefits without sufficient exertion to earn them. This objection is based on the natural law that requires the debit and credit sides of life to be kept in balance and demonstrates that in the long run we have only what we earn.

Christian Science is no exception to the rule. We cannot have its real benefits without earning them. The teachings of this Science, founded as they are upon the words and works of the Master, Christ Jesus, emphasize the same fundamental truths he presented in the parables of the kingdom. He said (Matt. 13:45, 46), "The kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it."

Christian Science cannot be bought with a price less than that of full accord with its stated rules of practice. Many are willing to bid for Christian Science, but fewer are ready to pay the price. This price involves not only spiritual devotion but thoroughness in treatment, by one's uncovering the error and pleading the case in Science for Truth.

The underlying basis of treatment is that God is the divine Principle of all that is, that He is All-in-all. The purpose of Christian Science treatment is to bring thought into realization of the presence and healing power of God. Treatment may be said to be of two kinds. One is the instant Christly way, expressed in these words by Mary Baker Eddy in the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 411): "If Spirit or the power of divine Love bear witness to the truth, this is the ultimatum, the scientific way, and the healing is instantaneous." The other kind of treatment is the way by argument, the explanation of which is found on many pages of Mrs. Eddy's writings. The affirmation of Truth and the denial of error are the human aids which serve to bring thought into recognition of the healing power of the Christ.

Although much splendid, instantaneous healing is accomplished by students of Christian Science, even as was brought about by Jesus and his followers, without specific argument, yet it is apparent that if such quick results do not follow treatment, the student would be remiss if he failed to argue the case in the way that this Science teaches. The often-heard injunction, "Handle the claim," is imperative. Repeating absolute statements of Truth without their correlated application to the need and in a spirit void of necessary compassion and affection, and without results, forfeits the confidence in Truth so necessary for its proof.

Being willing to array one's mental arguments against the physical, to detect the involved forms of mortal mind, and to oppose them with Truth, even as a natural scientist diligently pursues and exposes a falsity, earns the reward of scientific demonstration. This is accomplished by denial so specific and by affirmation so clear that phases of error, either fearsome, moral, or physical, must disappear. Divine Mind manifests precision in one's detection of a lie, and the healer must utilize this fact in his work.

Mrs. Eddy has mentioned her reluctance, when preparing her first edition of Science and Health, to give the public a chapter on animal magnetism; she has told how the divine purpose was made clear that this be done (see Retrospection and Introspection, pp. 37, 38). The student often discovers that there is in the human mind a disinclination to recognize and handle the claims of error thoroughly. This may result in postponing or ignoring the needed effort. Absolute truths which are the basis of Science are understood in the degree that material beliefs are recognized and destroyed. To have the benefit of healing, one must earn it by spiritual realization or by analyzing the error, detecting its nature, and confronting it with the healing power of Truth.

The denial of error along with the affirmation of Truth may be considered too elementary by some who feel that they have advanced beyond that into the realm of pure abstract knowing. There may even be inclinations on the part of some to look upon portions of the textbook dealing with error as outmoded, although those dealing with abstract metaphysics are considered advanced and sufficient. Unwillingness to see the nature of error's hidden mental ways and to oppose it with Truth has characterized the doctrines of religious and moral movements of the past.

The philosophy known as Gnosticism was a mixture of Oriental, Jewish, and Greek religions, which, in the first two centuries of the Christian era, sought to combine its abstract and barren intellectual doctrines with the pure teachings of Jesus and his followers. Gnostic philosophy included teachings which resulted either in rigid asceticism or in unrestrained libertinism. Gnostic speculation was morally barren, contenting itself with platitudes of doubtful wisdom. This philosophy was one of the harmful influences which threatened to undermine the early Christian church and was one of the factors in destroying its healing mission.

One finds it easier and more pleasant to dwell on the good rather than the erroneous, to speak to another of his virtues than to point out his faults. Likewise, one may be averse to the uncovering of his own shortcomings. It requires a high degree of spiritual love and a depth of sympathetic understanding to uncover error, point it out, and heal through the Christ-power. This does not mean that we should ruminate over errors and think constantly of shortcomings. It does mean that we should face up boldly to them and destroy them by prayerful spiritual understanding.

In considering the tendency to avoid handling the claims of error, one sometimes hears it said that the denial of error makes it too real, that it disturbs one's peace of mind, confuses thought, and destroys the harmony of consciousness. In human experience unpleasant things are rarely faced willingly. One just turns from them and tries to think of something else; but this does not destroy them. Our Master bade us keep watch. Such a watch should not cause fear or confusion, nor should it exhaust one. The faithful watchman joyfully awaits Truth's appearing in consciousness and error's disappearing.

It is what one knows of spiritual allness counteracting error's nothingness that heals. One does not make error real by denying its verity. Mrs. Eddy says (Retrospection and Introspection, p. 64): "It is scientific to abide in conscious harmony, in health-giving, deathless Truth and Love. To do this, mortals must first open their eyes to all the illusive forms, methods, and subtlety of error, in order that the illusion, error, may be destroyed; if this is not done, mortals will become the victims of error."

Matter is no more substantial to one than his thoughts about it. Error is a transient, evanescent form of illusion or mesmerism that hovers in the human mind no longer than it is allowed to. Error has to do with anatomy, the human body, medical laws, supply, social relations, business, the world and all that pertains to it. These are objectified in thought and appear outwardly in what are called physical conditions or material things. It will be found that the belief in matter and fear presents two primary errors to be met and mastered. When directly opposed by Truth, error vanishes, together with its so-called physical effects.

It should be recognized that primarily disease or discord is a mesmeric belief in the mind of the patient and that changing his state of mind through treatment brings healing. Mrs. Eddy says (Christian Healing, p. 6): "Man thinks he is a medium of disease; that when he is sick, disease controls his body to whatever manifestation we see. But the fact remains, in metaphysics, that the mind of the individual only can produce a result upon his body."

Aversion to handling error or the fear of it does not influence the student who keeps close to simple verities. Error, being not real or substantial, presents no conflict with Truth. Intelligence has no conflict with nonintelligence. Emergence out of ignorance should not bring discomfort, but rather peace and confidence. Is that not the nature of proper schooling, particularly of the young? As they acquire more knowledge, their assurance and confidence grow. So it is with Christian Scientists. The coming of light renders the darkness less fearsome. One joyously exchanges illusion for clarity in Mind, and fear for confidence in Truth. Thus scientifically emptying consciousness of its forebodings, its illusions, and mental pictures purifies the mind and readies it to receive the holy charge of divine grace and the realization of Love, which heals the sick and the sinning.

The following incident was related to the writer. It took place in a court of law where the case on trial was a family controversy. The attorney for the plaintiff was adroit and suave. He presented his case, apparently with great conviction, but it was cleverly interlaced with distortions of fact and misstatements of law. His effrontery and presumption so astounded the young attorney for the defendant that he sat mute in his chair, like one transfixed. He made no defense based on the facts, nor did he meet the issues of law so wrongly presented. The mesmerism of the error went unbuked, and the case was lost.

It is an interesting addendum that from this experience the young attorney gained a valued lesson, which stood him in good stead in his later practice. There have been many instances in courts of law in which, through the application of Christian Science, the machinations of evil have been circumvented and justice established.

When one is undergoing a physical trial, he should not be overwhelmed by its seeming realism. The attempt of error is to make nothing something, to present matter as a condition of swelling, inflammation, or disease; to render fear or sin real; to make one discouraged and discordant; or even make him doubt his ability to uncover and handle evil. But this is not the prerogative of error. In Science there is nothing anywhere but the good.

Mrs. Eddy has used the illustration of a trial in court as an allegory, in which the plea of Christian Science heals the sick. Particularly apt is her comparison of argument by an attorney to the argumentation one uses in treating a case in Christian Science. An argument in court is based upon human law. An argument in Christian Science rests upon the basis of absolute divine law, God's allness, and all that this includes.

As the attorney at law is presumed to meet the various phases of his opponent's argument with meticulous discernment and rejection, presenting the right as against the wrong, so does the Christian Science treatment analyze the errors of sense and supplant them with spiritual ideas. The student finds personal sense continually arguing with itself and for itself, its nature, its desires. His work is to meet the issues specifically, clearly, directly. Without this direct meeting of the issues, his effort would be lacking in effectiveness, as was that of the young legal attorney who failed to meet precisely the issues wrongly presented.

Whatever presents itself to the thought of the student as fear, lack, inability, darkness, confusion, disease, or sin must be effaced as an illusion or belief and replaced with God's eternal, changeless ideas. In cases of sickness, the argument should extend to its nature and symptoms. In law, a claim unanswered may be decided against one. So in treatment, when arguments are used, they must be carried to the point of specific annulment of the belief, without trace of fear or evil.

Because Christian Science is the Science of Mind, it requires scientific approach both in understanding and in practice. This includes invariable rule and its application. Inspirational, spiritual revelation of God and His reflection often brings instantaneous healing; but where more work is required, as has been said, then the mental argument must be used to bring human consciousness into the realization of divine Truth and Love. Thus does one earn the benefits of Christian Science by adherence to its rules of practice. It is the Science of Truth and Love applied that heals the sick, redeems the sinner, and establishes our concept of man on its absolute, immovable, eternal basis.

"THE PRESENT IMMORTALITY"

DOROTHY EILEEN HEYWOOD-DOVE

"IF a man keep my saying, he shall never see death" (John 8:51). These authoritative words of Christ Jesus, the Founder of Christianity, vitally challenge every student of the Bible to follow the Master's teachings and to avail himself now of the great fact that man's immortality is a present and provable reality. As we obey these teachings, thought is detached irrevocably from that which prophesies or fears an opposite to life, and the pathway to reality—to Life eternal—opens wide. This pathway must be through the transformation and transfiguration of the human, even as these were experienced by the Master, until the ascending thought crowns the victory over the flesh with glory.

In the consciousness of Christ Jesus, immortality was inherent, instinctive, fundamental. He acknowledged no human father. He challenged and defied the limiting statements of the Jews by declaring (John 8:58), "Before Abraham was, I am," linking pre-existence with coexistence. He lifted up the standard of scientific living and divine healing and revealed life's purpose to be spiritual ascendancy over all material beliefs. He proved in progressive measure that he could heal every form of inharmony, physical, mental, and moral. He lived by divine authority and exercised and maintained this authority hourly in order to benefit and to bless all men. He brought to humanity a consciousness of abundant life.

Under the marginal heading "The present immortality" in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes (p. 428), "The great spiritual fact must be brought out that man is, not shall be, perfect and immortal." And she continues with tremendous significance, "We must hold forever the consciousness of existence, and sooner or later, through Christ and Christian Science, we must master sin and death." This, then, is the purpose of life; this, the goal before the student of Christian Science: to prove now that man is immortal, to "hold forever the consciousness of existence." The false beliefs called sin, disease, and death, which would seemingly disrupt the continuity of life, must be obliterated; then will immortality be embraced in consciousness without interruption or intermission.

As the profound significance of Mrs. Eddy's instructions dawns in thought, frontiers expand into infinity. The words of Christ Jesus (John 17:3), "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent," challenge the student to ever greater consecration. The inevitability of the conquest over mortality is prophetically assured to him who sees the Son of man enthroned in the glory of the Father and so gains the inspiration and spiritual conviction of immortal being, the continuous consciousness of existence, "the present immortality."

The ability to surmount, to render powerless that which would extinguish life, must be inherent in Life's divine bestowal of being. Hence the words of the Master (John 5:26): "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself"—the same quality of life, ever available, ever present, and ever operative.

That death can be overcome, Christ Jesus gave conclusive evidence during his three years' ministry. He brought to life Jairus' young daughter, who had just died. A widow's son, whose burial was about to take place, was restored to his mother at the gate of the city of Nain. And Lazarus, the friend of Jesus, already entombed for four days, was called out of the sepulcher by the authoritative command (John 11:43), "Lazarus, come forth." Finally came Jesus' own resurrection, of which our great Leader writes (Science and Health, p. 44), "His disciples believed Jesus to be dead while he was hidden in the sepulchre, whereas he was alive, demonstrating within the narrow tomb the power of Spirit to overrule mortal, material sense." Jesus proved that he forever held "the consciousness of existence."

The student of Christian Science learns to embrace in thought the changeless fact of individual immortality, as evidenced in the life and works of Christ Jesus, and see it as inseparable from the Science of Life. The great discovery of this Science, with its rules given to humanity by Mrs. Eddy in Science and Health, has already brought incalculable change to human thought in many realms of research.

True being needs neither restoration, redemption, nor rehabilitation. As the individual assimilates the fundamental fact of immortality, he identifies himself with reality, with divinity, with immortal being, with God. Then will appear that which is divine, replacing the human concept.

That Jesus' consciousness of continuous being, of immortality, did not stoop to the belief of life in the flesh is proved by his references to his oneness with the Father. His triumphant surmounting of all phases of the mortal dream bore witness to his recognition of man's immortal origin and nature.

The task before the Christian Scientist is to bring out, to demonstrate in his own life and in the lives of those who appeal to him for health and harmony, the great spiritual fact of the immortality of individual life. The way of this accomplishment is through the recognition of the pre-existence and coexistence of divine Principle and idea; through the exemplification of that oneness, or inseparability, of God and man so wonderfully and completely expressed by Christ Jesus.

In following Jesus' great example, we need to undertake joyfully, patiently, and persistently much consecrated and regenerative thinking in order to bring thought into line with the spiritual ideal. Our great Exemplar walked the earth, but did not believe in its illusive happenings. He accepted no part of the earthly dream as true, and the student must be ever on guard to detect and subdue latent and unsuspected elements of error, that thought may be attuned to divine inspiration and guidance.

Let us remember that Jesus' advancing apprehension led him to the mount of transfiguration before the victory on Calvary and the final triumph at Bethany. This should be our goal: that thought, character, daily living, be transfigured and transformed to the spiritual model. The fact of man's immortal being gives us the authority and the foundation for the attainment of our goal.

Let us learn to live our God-bestowed capabilities for good by hourly identifying ourselves with the divine. Let us embrace immortality and so demonstrate our spiritual selfhood. "The Science of being furnishes the rule of perfection, and brings immortality to light," writes our beloved Leader (Science and Health, p. 336). The Science of Christianity points the path to the triumph of Spirit, to spiritual life, to "the present immortality."

WHY GRATITUDE AIDS IN HEALING

WILL B. DAVIS

AS we study the record of the healing works of Christ Jesus, it is evident that he consistently acknowledged God as the source of his ability and goodness. He said (Matt. 19:17), "Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God." And again (John 14:10), "The Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works." Thus he reminded his followers that it was not human power which enabled him to heal all manner of sickness and disease. He was conscious of his ability to express the good his Father imparted to him, to reflect God's love and perfection.

For many years before she discovered Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy had been searching the Scriptures in an effort to learn how Jesus healed. Through this earnest study, she discovered that he was able to heal the sick and even raise the dead through looking to God as the only power. Jesus never used material means or methods. It was knowing that God is wholly perfect and therefore does not send disease or even know discord which enabled Mrs. Eddy to follow the example of Jesus and heal as he did.

On page 7 of her book "Unity of Good," Mrs. Eddy tells how she was able to heal cancer, replace dislocated joints, and raise the dying to health through clearly knowing that God does not recognize disease or send it to His children. Then on the same page she makes this significant statement which emphasizes how important it is in the healing work to express gratitude for God's perfection: "Certain self-proved propositions pour into my waiting thought in connection with these experiences; and here is one such conviction: that an acknowledgment of the perfection of the infinite Unseen confers a power nothing else can."

A correct understanding of God accepts the Bible teaching that He is the only creator, that He made all that was made and made it good. This understanding eliminates the belief that anything imperfect or inharmonious could exist in God's universe. It is gratitude for and prayerful acknowledgment of this spiritual fact that aids us in reflecting the divine power to heal ourselves and others.

The day before I was to begin having class instruction in Christian Science, a sense of sickness and weakness threatened the fulfillment of this glorious experience. I was led to pick up a copy of The Christian Science Journal in a hotel lobby where I stopped to rest. It opened to the testimonies of healing; and as I read them, such a profound sense of gratitude for every one of those healings came to me that I was almost overwhelmed with joy. I was completely healed when I had finished reading.

Gratitude is a vital aid in healing because gratitude acknowledges that divine Love's bountiful bestowals of good have been received and are now being manifested. The Bible emphasizes again and again the importance of giving thanks to God. We find such reminders as this (Ps. 107:8): "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!"

How necessary it is for us to be humbly grateful for every evidence of divine Love's goodness and perfection. Sometimes it may seem that we have nothing whatever for which we can be grateful, but this is never true. Think of the glorious privilege we have of living in the age when the Comforter, Divine Science, has come to mankind. Could we ever be grateful enough for Mrs. Eddy's love and steadfast perseverance in continuing to look to Love for inspiration and illumination as she accepted the divine revelation which came to her?

How grateful we must be that our Leader discovered that sickness, sin, and death are illusions of the mortal, carnal mind and therefore could never be true or manifested anywhere. As we study the revelation of Truth, how grateful we must be that she finished her work through her discovery and the establishment of the Christian Science movement. The divine plan of good for each of God's children is available to you and to me and to all mankind.

Just think of the glory of being able to say and understand that the discords which Christian Science enables us to eliminate never had any actual reality or continuity! This great discovery that sickness and sin are only illusions of the carnal mind awakens us to the good that has always been true.

As the vastness of the discovery unfolds, we have reasons for profound gratitude every day for God's great goodness; and this gratitude awakens us to reality—to the fact that the man of God's creating has always been harmonious, well, and free. This understanding brings regeneration and healing into our human experience.

So often it is easy to take our blessings for granted and forget to be grateful for what seem to be little things. Once a friend of mine had quite a long struggle in overcoming a sense of internal discomfort and pain. She was an earnest student of Christian Science, but when she did not meet the situation through her own prayerful work, she asked a Christian Science practitioner to help her. Still the trouble persisted over a period of weeks. During this time every effort was made to begin with God as the only creative cause and to reason that spiritual man, made in God's likeness, has never had a lapse from perfection.

In connection with the work, the practitioner looked up many references in the Bible and in Mrs. Eddy's writings and at times gave these citations to the patient for study.

Then one day the patient called the practitioner to say that she was entirely well, free from all discomfort. She explained that the healing had come as she prayerfully reasoned with a sentence in one of the references she had been given. It starts on page 393 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," where Mrs. Eddy writes, "It is well to be calm in sickness; to be hopeful is still better; but to understand that sickness is not real and that Truth can destroy its seeming reality, is best of all, for this understanding is the universal and perfect remedy."

The passage says, "It is well to be calm." The patient asked herself, "Have I been calm?" She knew she had had some measure of peace and calm throughout the experience; but then she thought, "Have I been grateful for the calm I have had, because if I am not grateful for the calmness that has come to me, I will not be ready for more calmness."

She read on to the next phrase which says it is even better to be hopeful in sickness. Again she reasoned, "Think of the hopelessness and turmoil I would have had without Christian Science, but have I really been grateful for the hope I have had?"

She resolved then and there to remember to be grateful for even the calm and hope which were coming to her. Then as she considered the rest of the sentence, she realized that the trouble which had seemed so disturbing had actually never been real, had never been true of the real man as the image and likeness of God. There was no room in her uplifted consciousness for disease. She was gratefully acknowledging the perfection of God and His entire creation. At that moment she realized she was well. Her gratitude made the victory possible.

Because Mrs. Eddy knew through her own experience the healing power of sincere gratitude to God, she was led to provide opportunities for Christian Scientists to express gratitude by giving healing experiences at Wednesday testimony meetings in Churches of Christ, Scientist, and also by having testimonies of healing published in the Christian Science periodicals. This overflowing gratitude helps those who are expressing it, as well as everyone who reads or hears the testimonies which are given.

It is interesting that for a complete twenty-four-hour day, Christian Scientists are audibly expressing gratitude in Wednesday meetings in our churches throughout the world. The meetings start each week in New Zealand and Australia, and as the time changes around the world, the outpouring of this gratitude continues for a whole day and blesses mankind everywhere; for an acknowledgment of God's ever-available love is true prayer and confers healing power.

Thus we can more fully appreciate not only the vast importance of sharing our gratitude with others at our Wednesday meetings, but the importance of just being there to rejoice in and prayerfully acknowledge God's power, which has helped and healed others.

The opportunity we have for thus blessing all mankind is emphasized by Mrs. Eddy in this prophetic passage (The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, p. 189): "The silent prayers of our churches, resounding through the dim corridors of time, go forth in waves of sound, a diapason of heart-beats, vibrating from one pulpit to another and from one heart to another, till truth and love, commingling in one righteous prayer, shall encircle and cement the human race."

Annual Meeting

ELEANOR M. LUCE

O LIFE sublime, Thy gracious, pure demands
Have summoned us into this holy place.
Unlimited by time's constraining hands,
The Soul-filled years of Truth's appearing trace
Unfolding patterns of eternity
Upon the history of the waking world.
God's Science stands in true conformity
With Christ, its healing power all unfurled
In Spirit's everlasting law and light;
Its ministry is not bound up in pride
And person, but is compassed by the might
Of Principle, man's governor and guide.
And so we praise Thee for the Love-blessed way,
As in this hallowed house we sing today.

VICTORY OVER EVIL IS INEVITABLE

JEANNE ROE PRICE

"TRUTH is always the victor," Mary Baker Eddy writes on page 380 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." To one who may be frightened or discouraged with what has seemed to be a long and unrelenting siege of suffering, these words bring immeasurable comfort. God is Truth, and "Truth is always the victor." Victory over evil, therefore, is inevitable. Victory over pain, poverty, limitation—evil of every kind—is inevitable. This we can accept as an indisputable fact.

But when, we may ask ourselves, when may we expect the inevitable victory over evil? Again words from Science and Health come to our aid (p. 39): "'Now,' cried the apostle, 'is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation,'—meaning, not that now men must prepare for a future-world salvation, or safety, but that now is the time in which to experience that salvation in spirit and in life." Now, of course!

If evil has even a possibility of power or of presence, a moment of reality, then there must be a time when Truth, God, is not power and is not present. But there is no such time. There is no time when Truth is not Truth, when God is not God—omnipotent, omnipresent, and omniscient. Like a fresh, invigorating breeze which blows away the fog or mist on an autumn day, God's power and presence can completely blow away the cloud which may have seemed for so long to have overlaid and enveloped us.

Victory over evil is inevitable! The world is searching for such victory. It also asks when, where, and how. Christian Science answers the whens, the wheres, and the hows of mortal questioning, and, through countless inerrant proofs, confirms the correctness of its answer. God is infinite good and the source of good, this Science teaches. Good is, therefore, inevitable, ever available. Good is not to be found in matter or in materialistic theories. "Woe to them that . . . trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord!" the prophet Isaiah tells us (31:1). Great, however, is the reward of them who look unto the Lord, who trust in His goodness, His love, and His law, and who obey His commandments.

In the forty-first Psalm, David speaks of the enemies which would seem to deprive us of good. The world is prone to think of enemies as people, nations, circumstances, environment, or heredity. Christian Science teaches that the only enemies which can seem to us to exist are wrong thoughts which we accept as our own; false beliefs concerning God and man; mortal mind and its temptations to accept a power apart from God, good; indifference to, or apathy toward, Truth.

A student of Christian Science found it helpful when studying this Psalm to use the word "mortal mind" for the word "enemies" and to cast out from her thinking any "enemy" which might seem to be entrenched there, such as fear, worry, jealousy, resentment, stubbornness, limitation.

The ninth verse of the Psalm was a challenge to her. It reads: "Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me." Who is this "familiar friend" which has "lifted up his heel against me"? she asked herself. Who, or what, is the closest associate any one of us can have? And quickly the answer came: Thought habits!

Thought habits are a repetition of thoughts with which through the years we have identified ourselves. "I've always been shy" or, "I've always had a quick temper" or, "I've always been afraid of this or that" are statements we may have thought or said over and over again until we have actually accepted such characteristics as our very own nature. Thought habits of this kind most certainly do lift up their heels against us, even as the Psalmist said. Therefore we must carefully guard our thoughts and refuse false thought habits entrance.

"The happiness of your life depends upon the quality of your thoughts, therefore guard accordingly," the philosopher-emperor of ancient Rome, Marcus Aurelius, wrote centuries ago. Thackeray put it a little differently: "The world is a looking-glass," he said, "and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face. Frown at it, and it will in turn look sourly upon you; laugh at it and with it, and it is a jolly kind companion." In other words, our thoughts make for us an unfriendly, unhappy world or a friendly, happy one; a series of stumbling blocks, or a series of steppingstones.

In the twelfth verse of the Psalm referred to above is a most beautiful expression of God's love for us. It reads, "As for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever." A dictionary defines "integrity," in part, as "state or quality of being complete, undivided, or unbroken." Of course! God made us, and He knows His workmanship is good, very good, unbroken, complete. He sets us before His face forever. What a beautiful and tender way of saying that we are always in God's presence, always known and loved of Him. There could not possibly be a moment in God's presence when evil could be real. When we know this, victory over evil is inevitable.

What is true concerning ourselves? What does God say of us? For what He says of us is the truth concerning us. God says that we are His workmanship, His image and likeness, that He has created us to be His witnesses, that we are His dear children who, in the words of the eighth Psalm, are crowned "with glory and honour."

God is Mind. Mrs. Eddy writes (Science and Health, p. 469), "There can be but one Mind, because there is but one God; and if mortals claimed no other Mind and accepted no other, sin would be unknown." What about mortal mind, the enemy of which we have spoken? In reality, there is no mortal mind. It is only our belief in error that makes it seem to be real, seem to be our mind, seem to be the basis of our thoughts and acts. Acknowledging God as our Mind, accepting the oneness and allness of divine Mind, we find that we have no "enemies," no pain or fear, no mental deficiency, no frustration, no limitation or lack. Thus we prove that God, divine Mind, Truth, is the inevitable victor over evil.

Since time began, men have believed evil to be a power. They have worshiped their highest concept of Deity or deities both in reverence and in fear. The whole fabric of society has been woven and interwoven with the twisted threads of divided power, the acceptance of good and evil as co-existent and coequal. Christian Science is revolutionary in its challenge to such thinking. It teaches that good alone is power, because God is good. There is no other God, no other power. Evil with its boastful, illegal claims to power is a futile usurper, destitute of power to influence or govern one's thoughts or acts. Good is sovereign, supreme. Good necessarily destroys evil.

Let us, then, like little children, trust our Father-Mother God, trust good, expect good, accept good. Let us pray, not in fear, but in loving reverence to God. In deepest gratitude to God let us realize that He upholds us in our purity and integrity, that He has set us before His face forever. Let us not be unbelieving of His promises. Let us not be weary in our adherence to Principle. Let us not despair of our ability to bear witness to His glory.

Prayer is more powerful than an atom bomb, for it is communion, at-one-ment with God, the All-power. Prayer is humanity's invincible weapon against aggression, oppression, sin, disease, poverty, war. Prayer is love for God, expressed in love for man. Each one of us can pray. Thus each one of us has his part in the universal victory over evil. Let us not belittle the power of prayer. Let us not underestimate the immediacy and omnipotence of good and of our forever oneness with good.

Victory over evil is inevitable.

INSPIRATION AND RESTORATION

ERMINIE ROCK WALPOLE

SOME form of restoration is always a concomitant of spiritual inspiration. The Psalmist prayed (Ps. 51:10, 12): "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. . . . Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit." He knew that his ability to understand and express God had not been lost, and he confidently prayed to be more aware of the bestowals of Spirit. He must have glimpsed the truth which centuries later Mary Baker Eddy expressed in her "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 154), "It is the purpose of divine Love to resurrect the understanding, and the kingdom of God, the reign of harmony already within us."

There has never been any cause or creator except God. All that has been formed is good, even as the Bible declares (Gen. 1:31), "God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good."

The Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mrs. Eddy, is filled with inspired yet practical rules, which, when obeyed, bring to light man's God-bestowed harmony and improve our human experience. One of these rules which have proved to be dependable over and over again is (p. 261), "Hold thought steadfastly to the enduring, the good, and the true, and you will bring these into your experience proportionably to their occupancy of your thoughts." Mrs. Eddy is speaking of the human experience here, for of course spiritual man is changeless.

Countless times it has been proved that when thought is held steadfastly to the truth regarding God and His image and likeness, man, an improvement in human affairs occurs. The office of the Christ, the true idea of God, includes the enlightenment of human consciousness and its restoration to the original glory which it had "when the morning stars sang together" (Job 38:7). Through inspiration one recognizes that all real power and ability belong to God and are reflected by man. Every moment of communion with the creator quickens one's discernment of man's perfect being.

To cling resolutely to the truth is excellent practice. To practice right knowing is to ally oneself with deific Mind, and this activity restores one's awareness of reality, perfect and spiritual. There is an infinity of good to contemplate! For example, when one understands that Spirit is the only enduring substance, he sees clearly that substance can never decay or disappear. And as Truth is recognized as eternal and ever enthroned, one knows that no lie of sickness or sin can dethrone Truth. There is no power to challenge changeless omnipotence.

The writer is acquainted with a young woman whose son was born with a crooked foot. The foot was turned so far to the side of the ankle that it seemed to grow out from the side instead of straight forward. The superintendent of nurses in the maternity home telephoned the Christian Science practitioner on the case about the malformation.

The practitioner began immediately to declare the truth regarding God's creation. With conviction she acknowledged His work to be perfectly done and recognized Him to be the only former of man. She found much inspiration in the study of that week's Bible Lesson from the Christian Science Quarterly which was "God the Only Cause and Creator." She prayed earnestly to become more aware of the glory of God and the beauty of His handiwork. Because of the inspiration of Truth which flooded her consciousness, something good had to be manifested outwardly. Within ten days the child's foot was entirely normal. His parents recognized this wonderful healing as evidence of the activity of God's law, eternally maintaining and controlling His creation.

In the realm of divine Mind dwell all its spiritual ideas, which, when utilized, correct suggestions of imperfection and in-harmony. Students of Christian Science are learning to search for and to recognize the specific truth which cancels the specific lie. Through their daily study of the Bible and the writings of Mrs. Eddy, they are becoming better equipped rightly to divide the Word of Truth, or to discern the particular truth which is applicable to the human need. Consecrated study maintains inspiration, and inspiration and restoration go hand in hand. In Science and Health we read (p. 390), "It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle, which produces apparent discord, and the right understanding of Him restores harmony."

God preserves man's perfection. The understanding of this fact quickens one's perception of Truth and corrects distorted thinking. Demonstration is the visible manifestation of God's power operating in human consciousness. Isaiah thus voiced God's message (42:16): "I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight." What cannot God do!

MOUNTAINTOP AND VALLEY

HERSCHEL P. NUNN

AS I rode through the snow-covered mountains one spring, it was beautiful, clear, sunshiny weather, with blue skies, and fleecy clouds floating above the mountains. The rivers and streams were flowing full, because a few days before there had been some warm weather and the snow had started to melt. What a delight to the eye were those snow-covered peaks; what beauty in those clear, flowing streams and rivers! Because the mountains gave of their white mantle of snow, rivers flowed, and there was water for the thirsty valleys, the farms, and the gardens.

I was told that only the week before, most of the streams were just trickling along with very little water in them, and now they were rushing torrents of clear, pure water. The snow was held until the time was ripe for its melting; then the water ran into the streams and rivers that the valleys might be refreshed.

And so it is in the valley of human thought: the redemptive mission of Christian Science, flowing from the mountaintop of spiritual inspiration, is needed. The thought thirsting for the clear waters of Truth is not reached until the pure letter of the Word is accompanied by the spirit, the warmth of divine Love. Our Leader, Mary Baker Eddy, tells us in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 319), "The divine Science taught in the original language of the Bible came through inspiration, and needs inspiration to be understood."

It is well known that every active, alert student of Christian Science is putting into practice his understanding of this great truth. If he is refreshed by thoughtful study of this Science, the beautiful quality of inspiration is naturally expressed in his daily living. Unconsciously his thought, his acts, his spontaneous expression of practical Christianity, are bearing witness to the truth he has found in Christian Science. Mrs. Eddy says in "Unity of Good" (p. 46), "All Truth is from inspiration and revelation,—from Spirit, not from flesh."

Those who seek to climb the mountain peak of spiritual understanding and to stay there should see the value of bringing the truths they have glimpsed on the mountaintop down into the valleys of human thought and experience that others may be nourished and fed thereby. If the snow remained on the peaks, it would not refresh the valley. The mountaintop thinker needs to reflect divine Love in compassion in order that his inspiration may heal and bless others. Those whose streams seem to run dry or in shallow channels need to climb up to a mountaintop to gain greater inspiration.

The real man does not need to be saved and on that account does not need a process of salvation; but the human race does need one, and Christian Science supplies it. An outstanding statement of this process is given on page 251 of our textbook, Science and Health: "We must learn how mankind govern the body,—whether through faith in hygiene, in drugs, or in will-power. We should learn whether they govern the body through a belief in the necessity of sickness and death, sin and pardon, or govern it from the higher understanding that the divine Mind makes perfect, acts upon the so-called human mind through truth, leads the human mind to relinquish all error, to find the divine Mind to be the only Mind, and the healer of sin, disease, death. This process of higher spiritual understanding improves mankind until error disappears, and nothing is left which deserves to perish or to be punished."

In our healing work we start from perfection, from the fact "that the divine Mind makes perfect, acts upon the so-called human mind through truth." It is in this process that the divine Mind outshines the error in the so-called human mind; the error is thus eliminated or destroyed, and the result is healing, for the divine Mind is seen as the only Mind.

It is because we have climbed to a mountaintop of realization of some great truth of Christian Science that we are able to see the nothingness of an erroneous condition of thought which needs to be healed. Often a Christian Science practitioner's clear vision of reality when imparted to one who has come to him for help results in immediate healing of mental or physical discord.

Can we ever cease to be grateful to our Leader, Mrs. Eddy, for giving to the human race the result of her mountaintop visions of the truth of being? Her love for mankind led her through many a valley of human trouble, difficulty, sorrow, and sickness that she might bring to suffering humanity her revelation of the healing Christ, Truth.

The student of Christian Science is as grateful for the clear, explanatory statements in the textbook, showing the application of Truth, as he is for the great, vital, absolute truths this book contains. It is because these truths are so clearly explained by our Leader that we are able to understand them, use them, and demonstrate them.

Every activity of The Mother Church operates to bring the truth of Christian Science to humanity. If ever one is tempted to believe that there is no further need of organization, let him know that he is listening to temptation. He is losing sight of the great work that is being done by The Mother Church. Without organization, Christian Science would not be adequately available to mankind.

One could never be tempted to believe that organization is not a present necessity when he truly comprehends the completeness, the wonder, the glory of fulfillment of what the Christ really is—the divine nature, the divine manifestation of Truth, destroying error and bringing healing to mankind. We read in Isaiah (55:10, 11), "For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

NO ROOM FOR SICKNESS

EDNA A. LICHTENFELS

SINCE God is the only cause and creator, it follows in divine Science that all must be good; and, since God fills all space, there is no room for sickness. The realization of these facts brings health into one's consciousness and also the proof that in true being, God governs all in perfect harmony. Mary Baker Eddy says in "Rudimental Divine Science" (p. 11), "Health is the consciousness of the unreality of pain and disease; or, rather, the absolute consciousness of harmony and of nothing else."

Two questions arise: How can one gain "the consciousness of the unreality of pain and disease"? and, How can one gain the "consciousness of harmony and of nothing else"? Christian Science teaches that sickness is a mistaken belief, the outgrowth of fearful, ignorant, or sinful thinking, in which pain is merely the acceptance of error as reality. Sickness cannot be handled from the standpoint that it is something to be grappled with, but it must be approached as a lie, as nothing claiming to be something. The scientific and perfect remedy is found in the operation of Truth, the law of God brought to bear upon the problem.

It can be seen, then, that it is unscientific to approach the healing of a diseased person as though he were really sick and then attempt to heal on this basis. But it is scientific to know that it is only a false belief of sickness that needs to be healed. This falsity must be banished in order to make place for the truth to operate and reveal the spiritual, perfect man.

The perfection of man is as much a fact as is the mathematical equation three plus three are six, to the perfection of which nothing can be added or subtracted. A mathematical truth is competent to correct a multitude of errors in numbers. So, in our working to heal a belief of sickness, the truths of God, good, can be proved as the only laws governing man. Divine law acts upon the so-called human mind, bringing the proof that life, substance, and intelligence are spiritual qualities and are expressed by spiritual man, and that nothing can be taken from or added to this fact. To be conscious of the truth for even a brief time enables the human mind to relinquish its error and brings freedom from bodily complaints.

To realize one's spiritual identity as a child of God, as the expression of His perfection, wholeness, and completeness, enables one to gain the "consciousness of harmony and of nothing else." Health is included in spiritual man because it is included in Mind, God, having nothing to do with matter. Health is, in fact, a state of harmony, peace, joy, and happiness. Health belongs to all. The Scriptures tell us (Acts 17:28), "In him we live, and move, and have our being." We live because God is Life; we move because God is omni-action; we have our being because God is the origin, the source, of all being. Then one's true being includes all of the attributes of God.

The Master, Christ Jesus, demonstrated the consciousness of harmony wherever he was. He demonstrated its ever-presence and thus in a sense proved that there is no place in which inharmony and sickness can be. He instructed his disciples "to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease" (Matt. 10:1). The rules of healing were discovered by Mrs. Eddy, and she named her discovery Christian Science. She grasped the spiritual import of the Master's words and works and restored the healing of all types of diseases by spiritual means alone. She tells us in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (Pref., p. xi), "The physical healing of Christian Science results now, as in Jesus' time, from the operation of divine Principle, before which sin and disease lose their reality in human consciousness and disappear as naturally and as necessarily as darkness gives place to light and sin to reformation."

The following incident shows how Principle operated in the experience of a couple who were traveling in Canada. The husband was suddenly stricken with painful intestinal trouble and continued to grow worse. As a hotel reservation for only one night was available because of the tourist season, the wife was fearful that they might be left stranded in a strange country. She remarked to her husband, "I am not going to have you sick on my hands here in Canada."

The husband replied, "Is there any place in which to be sick?"

This statement awakened her, and she answered: "No! In the realm of Mind there is no sickness. God did not make it, and He knows nothing of it; therefore it has no real entity."

Then came the realization that she must not see the condition as real or as attached to her husband, but only as a false belief masquerading as the truth. She realized that since God fills all space, His law destroys the belief in any other presence or power. By evening the husband's condition was quite normal, and he enjoyed a complete dinner.

While Christian Science makes it possible for all to be free from sickness, it has a greater mission, and that is to establish the realization of the harmony and perfection of man in God's image and likeness. In the measure that each demonstrates for himself that there is no place in which to be sick, poor, or unhappy, he furthers the world's ultimate realization that there is no place for these errors. Christian Science healing is practical demonstration of God's kingdom here and now.

MARRIAGE AND THE HOME

ROBERT DOLLING WELLS

THE child of an Army officer was playing house in the busy lobby of a hotel. Another guest sympathetically said, "Isn't it too bad you have no home?"

"Oh, we do have a home," the little girl replied; "we just have no house to put it in."

Man's true home is spiritual, not material. It is the sweet awareness of immortal Love's provision for well-being, progress, and happy fruition. Home is the consciousness in which Love finds instant expression, where Soul's resources yield a constant blessing, and where happiness is secure on a spiritual foundation.

The human sense of home comes to different individuals in different ways. Some find it without marriage; others in the institution of marriage and the family. Through the disciplines of a close companionship we can learn the qualities of thought and ways of action that take us gently and surely to heavenly good, to the full use of Soul's infinite resources and Love's direction.

A wife complimented her husband in these words: "His manner and actions always say: 'I like you. I am glad to have the opportunity to be with you.'" Human affection is a grand quality. Mary Baker Eddy says in "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 250), "As a human quality, the glorious significance of affection is more than words: it is the tender, unselfish deed done in secret; the silent, ceaseless prayer; the self-forgetful heart that overflows; the veiled form stealing on an errand of mercy, out of a side door; the little feet tripping along the sidewalk; the gentle hand opening the door that turns toward want and woe, sickness and sorrow, and thus lighting the dark places of earth."

The sweet love and anticipation of trysting times need never be lost in the unfolding of events. Man is the ideal of Love, and the more familiar we become with the real man, the more we shall look for and find the Godlike qualities that are inherent in his nature, and the more we shall enjoy what we see. Jesus expressed the keenest judgment, yet he said (John 8:15, 16): "Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me." And we have the blessed privilege of judging truly.

Jesus knew how to develop into satisfying expression the deep and serious possibilities for good always inherent in human consciousness. A good test of our usefulness as members of a family is the success we have in helping those around us to feel more capable as members of God's family of ideas, more conscious of the inner worth of man as God's child, and hence more useful to themselves and to mankind.

I have heard people say, "But if only he would study Christian Science, I could be more helpful to him, and our marriage would be happier." Such a standpoint sometimes fails to make full use of the good that our companion expresses, regardless of his religious convictions or his disbelief in our convictions.

If we know man as the child of God, we shall cherish every evidence our companion shows of true manhood. We shall support his every right idea and earnest hope. We can feel at one with good wherever and whenever we see it and not make the mistake of waiting until others name the name of Christ in Christian Science before we appreciate them. Paul's advice not to dwell with unbelievers is pertinent. We should dwell with man, the child of God.

If a close relationship develops into a display of mortal beliefs, a display of that which is not expressed in the real man but in mortal mind, then we may seem to lose the natural reward of companionship, and evil may seem to be at home with us. We have an individual task to perform if this is the case. We have the opportunity and necessity to express the qualities of the Christ in our own ways and thoughts, and by this means to eradicate in our experience that which contradicts Christliness. Having a pure ideal within, we shall find an ever-increasing manifestation of that ideal in our outward actions and circumstances. It is our right and joy to bring immortal qualities into the focus of events, both for ourselves and for our companions.

Marriage demands discipline, self-sacrifice, and service; it requires patience, willingness to consider another's point of view, and the demands made on him by that point of view. Once agreed to, the terms of marriage cannot morally be altered without mutual consent. The Christian Scientist learns the necessity of not confusing his theoretical knowledge of the demands of absolute Science with the understanding he has of demonstrating these demands. He learns to be exacting of himself but lenient in his demands upon others whose progress he may feel is not equal to his own. The gentle persuasiveness of a good example and of high ideals will serve absolute Science better than hidebound and dogmatic opinions.

In an article called "Wedlock" in "Miscellaneous Writings" Mrs. Eddy says (p. 288): "Positive and imperative thoughts should be dropped into the balances of God and weighed by spiritual Love, and not be found wanting, before being put into action. A rash conclusion that regards only one side of a question, is weak and wicked." Later in the same paragraph she adds, "Wisdom in human action begins with what is nearest right under the circumstances, and thence achieves the absolute."

Is a marriage ever beyond repair? This much can be said: there are no really hopeless situations, although there may be situations about which we have grown hopeless. Faith is sometimes the capacity to see possibility in what seems materially impossible. Spiritual faith and understanding meet no successful rebuttal from matter or material circumstances, regardless of their nature.

With quiet words, searching thoughts, and careful actions we can demonstrate in the minutiae of our affairs the qualities of godliness that are natural to man, and evil will go down before them. We can maintain our joy in God's infinite goodness, our love and respect for man, God's child, in spite of all the calumny or hate that may claim another's attention. Continuing in well-being, we can safely leave the issue to the unfolding of events and wait joyfully and patiently for God's loving mandate.

One factor which contributes to a happy household should not be overlooked: the necessity for each individual to have time alone. We need periods of stillness within, when the clamor of events and opinions is shut out, when we can be alone with our thoughts, our hopes, our innermost feelings. Quiet contemplation will dedicate a home, whereas an unbroken round of material activity may tend to desecrate it.

Micah describes the millennial state, our true home, as one in which "they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid" (4:4). And Mrs. Eddy correlates this passage when she writes of the partners of a marriage as follows (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 59): "Fulfilling the different demands of their united spheres, their sympathies should blend in sweet confidence and cheer, each partner sustaining the other,—thus hallowing the union of interests and affections, in which the heart finds peace and home."

Deep, Living Waters

KATHLEEN O'CONNOR

FORLORN, they wandered in the wilderness—
The bondwoman with Ishmael, her child.
Their pot of water and their bread were spent.
Despairingly, she cast the child away
In anguish lest she see him pine and die.
In desert of her human hopes and tears
She heard an angel voice, "Fear not. . . . Arise, Lift up the lad"! And she who was cast down
Arose; and lo, her opened eyes beheld
A well of water, cool and pure and deep,
Unseen before by Hagar's fear-closed eyes.

In bonds of lack, we too may hear a voice
Which bids us rise, lift up our thought of man
Till he is seen at one with God, his source.
No more the parched earth, desolate and drear—
The desert of a false, material sense—
Can hide from us the wellspring of all good:
Unfailing substance of outpouring Love,
Resources infinite of Soul are here
Awaiting recognition! Opened eyes
Behold supply at hand, as God's ideas
Fill consciousness with overflowing good.

For man, the child of God, there is no want,
No need for anxious thought or sense-bound fear;
Deep, living waters, whence we thirst no more,
Await the seeing eye and listening ear!

TRUTH REVERSES ERROR

ELIZABETH S. MURRAY

DO we see a sinful man at times, perhaps a hateful or a sick man, or do we even seem to be such a man? By reversing the erroneous, material sense testimony, we can never find false qualities in man, for man is the expression of God. God, good, is ever present, and evil is never where God is; hence it is ever absent. Error occupies no space, for all space is filled with good, with God.

To reverse our way of thinking, we must let divine Mind rule our thoughts, knowing that God is the only Mind of man, the only Mind there is. We must subordinate material sense and cultivate spiritual sense, which alone can tell us the truth regarding anything and everything.

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 120), "Science reverses the false testimony of the physical senses, and by this reversal mortals arrive at the fundamental facts of being." Since the testimony of the material senses is false to begin with, it should not be difficult, with persistent practice, for the student of Christian Science to know the very opposite of this falsity—to know what is true.

What are some of the fundamental facts at which mortals arrive when the Science of the Christ reverses error? Surely they must include perfect God, perfect man, perfect universe, and God's omnipotence, omnipresence, and omniscience. To become aware of these facts reveals to us that all is well now and forever.

When one begins the study of Christian Science and realizes to some extent that evil is never true and that the opposite of evil is always true, he has discovered a wonderful and usable fact. Just think, evil never real; actually, nothing ever to be afraid of! With fear dispelled we are enabled to have a much greater sense of freedom and health than we ever had before. As we grow in understanding, we often make demonstrations of Science by asking, "What is the opposite, spiritual fact of the error confronting me?" and then holding to this spiritual fact till harmony is apparent.

If one ignorantly accepts a mathematical error, this does not make it true. One might suffer loss from accepting a mistake as true, but the loss is effaced as soon as the error is corrected. Without effort on our part, the truth corrects and reverses the error. In the same way, error can be reversed in all of our experiences.

To be undisturbed by error is an important step toward reversing it. Suppose error should say that we feel ill. Where is the suggestion coming from? Certainly not from God. It comes from lying, material sense, to which we must not give power.

Man expresses the perfection of God. This is basic truth. Error is always illusion. Health is spiritual, never in matter nor governed by matter. Thus, without pushing or struggling, we may find that Truth reverses error and establishes the fact that man reflects only health and good.

To seek truth in matter is like seeking good in evil. Truth is not in matter. Let us learn to behold man as God's idea, expressing goodness, righteousness, wisdom, health, wholeness, substance. In "Miscellaneous Writings" Mrs. Eddy says (pp. 60, 61), "Every material belief hints the existence of spiritual reality; and if mortals are instructed in spiritual things, it will be seen that material belief, in all its manifestations, reversed, will be found the type and representative of verities priceless, eternal, and just at hand."

Christ Jesus' awareness of good and its naturalness reversed error instantly. In the eighth chapter of Matthew we read of the leper who came to the Master and said (verse 2), "Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean." Jesus reached out "and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean." We read that immediately the man was cleansed of the leprosy.

Jesus did not see a diseased mortal whom everyone shunned and feared to touch. His pure thought instantly reversed the false picture. He saw God's own reflection. He touched the sufferer, presented Christ, Truth, to human consciousness, telling the leper to be clean, or, in other words, to recognize his real self as a son of God.

The false testimony of corporeal sense is error's only foundation and a very unstable one. When the foundation is torn away, the whole structure crumbles. We build upon a substantial, indestructible foundation when we cultivate spiritual sense by study and prayer, by selfless love for others, by reversing every negative thought, and thus we subdue false sense. When consciousness is uplifted to the realm of Spirit, we see God operating in all our affairs, gently, lovingly, and oh, so wisely!

Spirit created man; he is therefore not material, but spiritual, governed by spiritual laws. He is never separated from God. Material sense is not our master; we make it our servant by letting Truth reverse error. Fear and temptation are overcome when we reflect Love and refuse to respond to evil's suggestions.

A mother, a student of Christian Science, was confronted with the severe illness of her child. To frightened material sense, the conditions were alarming, presenting a picture of delirium, high fever, and hemorrhage. The mother knew that God did not make such conditions, that man, God's likeness, never had them, that they were not actually present, because they were falsities, erroneous beliefs.

She turned away from the physical testimony to spiritual evidence. She looked beyond the misrepresentation and saw only God and His reflection, the only real evidence in the case. Holding fast to the truth, she felt God's loving presence even before there was any outward change. Truth reversed the error, and in a short time the disease vanished. Others around her were surprised, for they had been waiting for the disease to run its course. It never had a course to run, for God had never created it.

The sooner we learn that Truth reverses error and that we must hold consistently and insistently to the truth, the sooner shall we have richer blessings in our lives. Our beloved Leader says (Science and Health, p. 442), "Neither animal magnetism nor hypnotism enters into the practice of Christian Science, in which truth cannot be reversed, but the reverse of error is true."

GOD'S PROMISES ARE FOR ALL

MARY BEACH

THE Bible records God's promises of freedom from sin, disease, and death. How often the heart weighted by woe asks this question: "Are God's promises for me?" Christian Science declares that God's promises are for all mankind. Fulfillment takes place in human experience as we grow in spiritual understanding of our real selfhood, made in the image and likeness of God, and as we are obedient to spiritual law, which requires the acknowledgment of God's eternal goodness as the only reality.

It is helpful to consider prayerfully the degree of understanding and obedience practiced by Abraham when God promised him that he would be "a father of many nations" (Gen. 17:4), although to human sense he and Sarah, his wife, were aged and childless. It is written of Abraham (Rom. 4:20, 21), "He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform." Abraham's reliance on God and his willingness to give to God the glory due His name resulted in fulfillment of the promise.

Christ Jesus demonstrated the fulfillment of God's promises by his healing works. He was able to do this because he acknowledged God as the only Mind and understood the real man to be the creation of God, never expressed in or through matter. Mary Baker Eddy knew that the comfort and hope inherent in the Master's words and works were for all mankind, in all times, and under all circumstances. In reference to Jesus' God-appointed mission to prove the supremacy of spiritual law and the unreality of material law, Mrs. Eddy makes this statement in the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (pp. 328, 329): "The purpose of his great life-work extends through time and includes universal humanity. Its Principle is infinite, reaching beyond the pale of a single period or of a limited following."

The turmoil of what is termed human experience may seem to suggest that God's promises are not reaching all people. Perhaps we are floundering in a sense of confusion, indecision, and discouragement. The need is to awaken from the dream that man is separated from God and to let thought be receptive to God's promises. Let us heed the comforting words of the Psalmist promising divine guidance (Ps. 32:8): "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Man is never out of God's sight, never beyond God's direction. God's ideas cannot be separated from their source. Christian Science teaches that the suggestion of many minds cut off from God, burdened with a false sense of responsibility, dangling helplessly on the brink of despair, is an illusion. Divine Mind embraces, sustains, and governs its own ideas.

The promise of God's unfailing direction has been fulfilled in the writer's experience on many occasions when the course of human events has threatened to become difficult. A sense of tension, of too much to do, of doubt as to proper procedure, has been dispelled by mentally withdrawing from the onrush of human activity long enough to listen for God's promises and to declare quietly, "God is my Mind."

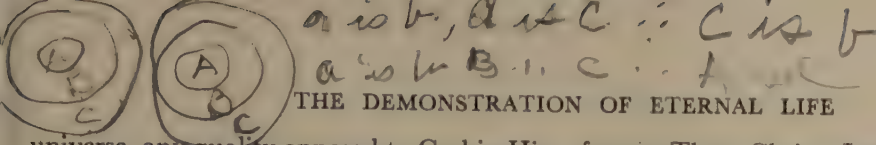

With this declaration has come the comforting assurance that there is no tension in spiritual consciousness, no task too great for divine intelligence, no faltering indecision in supreme wisdom; therefore none of these can be present in the man of God's creating, who lives and moves in divine Mind, God. Understanding this fact, one finds that false suggestions cannot enter or govern his experience.

Does bondage to sickness and pain make the fulfillment of God's promises seem remote? Let all who long for freedom from suffering take heart, for the promise of healing is within reach of all who understandingly, expectantly, and obediently look to God. Mrs. Eddy says on page 55 of Science and Health, "Truth's immortal idea is sweeping down the centuries, gathering beneath its wings the sick and sinning." She adds in the same paragraph: "The promises will be fulfilled. The time for the reappearing of the divine healing is throughout all time."

Christ Jesus demonstrated the healing power of God over and over again. He uttered irrevocable words of assurance, which today justify our accepting God's promises and utilizing the same divine power which Jesus employed. That God's promises are being fulfilled today is proved by the many voices lifted in Christian Science churches throughout the world, expressing gratitude for healings, and by testimonies appearing in the Christian Science periodicals. Healing takes place as one, aroused from the false sense of material selfhood, catches sight of the true selfhood, the reflection of Spirit. God's promise stated by Isaiah is being realized (58:8), "Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily."

There is no inharmonious condition, no anxiety, no terror, no grief that cannot be destroyed by one's accepting the infinite promise of divine Love, God. Love brings the tender, compassionate power of the Christ as close to us as our thinking, leaving no space for the intervention of error's false claims of sin, discord, and heartache. Love, revealing God's allness, enables us to reject the suggestion that there can be any unloveliness in His divinely co-ordinated universe, any quality opposed to God in His divine idea, man. The comforting promises of Love are ever available, even in the face of what seem to be fear, envy, hatefulness, lust, cruelty, dishonesty, and greed. The all-power of Love can break the mesmerism of all discordant false suggestions, including that of death.

Let us, like Abraham, give glory to God and stagger not at the magnitude of His goodness. Let us be fully persuaded that what God has promised, He is able to perform. That Christ Jesus did bring the promises of God, not only to those who shared his earthly experience, but to all mankind, is evidenced in his words to his disciples (John 10:16), "Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." The words of the Master come down through the ages, seeking entrance today at the threshold of our thought. God's promises are for all.

THE DEMONSTRATION OF ETERNAL LIFE

RENÉ H. SCHUBERT

"TO be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." These words of Paul (Rom. 8:6) would seem to indicate that death is not something over which men have no control, but that it is intimately connected with their mortal consciousness, or material way of thinking; in fact, that it is part of it.

The Bible records Moses as saying (Deut. 30:19), "I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live." Let us see, then, in the light of these words in what way mortals can exercise an influence on the outcome of their individual experience.

Christian Science reveals that God is Life and that God is All; therefore all is Life. Hence death is but a false belief, an illusion. It behooves each of us to grow out of that illusion by eradicating from consciousness any thought which would deny the allness of Life. We are helped in so doing by understanding that the only real basis of existence is spiritual and that what seems to be our material existence is but a dream of material sense.

The definition of "death" in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, reads in part (p. 584), "An illusion, the lie of life in matter; the unreal and untrue; the opposite of Life."

Christian Science is based on Christ Jesus' teachings. Jesus came to show the way of eternal Life. Of his redemptive mission Mrs. Eddy writes in "Unity of Good" (pp. 59, 60): "Jesus came to rescue men from these very illusions to which he seemed to conform: from the illusion which calls sin real, and man a sinner, needing a Saviour; the illusion which calls sickness real, and man an invalid, needing a physician; the illusion that death is as real as Life. From such thoughts—mortal inventions, one and all—Christ Jesus came to save men, through ever-present and eternal good."

Jesus searched deep into thought to uncover the lurking error, or lie, which would seem to hinder the appearing of Truth and harmony, the coming of the kingdom of heaven on earth. It was in mortal mind that the Master found the culprit. In the dark recesses of mortal consciousness he could detect such evils as hatred, malice, lust, envy, fear, revenge, self-importance, ingratitude, and hypocrisy. These evils proceed from the belief that man has an existence of his own, apart from God.

The Bible brings out the fact that sin not only leads to death, but that sin is already a state of death. The sinner is not awake to the magnitude and glory of God and of His perfect creation of spiritual ideas. He is not aware of spiritual life, which is harmonious. To that one, however, Science or suffering, or both, as our Leader says, will sooner or later bring the healing touch of Christ.

When the sinner no longer clings to his sinful habit, he will awaken to the reality of good. In the words of John the Baptist (John 3:36), "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life."

Overcoming such false traits as self-love, pride, selfishness, hatred, indifference, impatience, all negative qualities which would accentuate the belief of life in matter, we shall gradually rise into the consciousness of eternal Life. In the proportion that material thinking gives way to the consciousness of perfect Mind, we shall become alive to the allness of Life. This is the awakening or resurrection in which we take part.

Mrs. Eddy states in "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 154), "It is the purpose of divine Love to resurrect the understanding, and the kingdom of God, the reign of harmony already within us." There are signs today that false, mortal thinking, which is doomed to extinction, is giving way to the establishment of the reign of Christ. We shall find the way of perfect living of more immediate application if we remember, as Christian Science teaches, that God is good and that God is Life; therefore Life is synonymous with good. We truly live only in the measure that we express good.

At a time of stress, when it seemed that the phraseology of Christian Science had lost the glorious hue which it once had, the writer clung to the little word "good" as a beacon. Substituting the word "good" for God, he endeavored to feel and express more good. He found his inspiration returning. In due time, through his persistent study, each of God's synonyms in turn yielded a rich harvest of inspiration hitherto unknown.

The Comforter—Divine Science, or the spirit of Truth—is working as a leavening agent everywhere, even in the darkest corners of human consciousness, for the eventual awakening of all to the perfect bliss and harmony of spiritual being. Let the student examine himself and see if he can detect in his own thinking any deterrent to the revealing of "the kingdom of God, the reign of harmony already within [him]." We have the promise in Revelation (2:7), "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God."

If we would experience a more satisfying sense of existence, we may well ask ourselves how the light of Truth can penetrate our consciousness if we insist on blocking its entrance with the rubble of material thinking. Let us then resolve to manifest more of Life divine by expressing more of the Godlike qualities, thus purifying mortal consciousness from its sinful thoughts.

We shall do well to remember that we should guard against the lesser forms of sin, such as fear, worry, and self-condemnation, with the same vigilance that we guard against the more odious forms, since sin of whatever nature tends to perpetuate mankind's enslavement to the belief of life in matter. We should not open the door to any form of evil, since evil, under whatever guise, has the tendency to rob us of our rightful inheritance of God-given peace and joy.

Students of Christian Science are learning that each demonstration of Truth lifts one to a higher understanding of existence. The Father's behest is that all acquaint themselves with Him and His allness. This is possible, even though it seems a gradual process. These words of the Psalmist should fill us with the awareness of Life eternal (Ps. 23:6): "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever."

REPLACING TIME WITH ETERNITY

DUMONT BEERBOWER

DURING the first few weeks of my attendance at services in a branch Church of Christ, Scientist, I read and pondered a quotation by Mary Baker Eddy which was inscribed on the wall of the church. The statement read in part: "Jesus' three days' work in the sepulchre set the seal of eternity on time" (see The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, p. 214). The revelation inspired by these words was startling. I saw that since the seal of eternity is set on time, time does not exist, and therefore it could no longer shut my door to a happy life. Nor did I have to dispose of time myself, for Jesus had already done so; I needed only to accept these facts.

The evidence of this revelation of truth came quickly. Where I had labored for months to arrange my business sales calls in a reasonable way and had failed miserably because I was either too late or my prospect was busy, now the interviews began to come in proper and effective order. My gratitude was unbounded. At once I set about praying to understand more fully this profound statement. As I continued to read and ponder the teachings of Christian Science, my prayer to see the unreality of time was answered by steady and growing unfoldment.

For instance, in planning a workday at the office, I had made it a habit to arrange the various jobs on my desk in the order of their importance. This habit had proved more disturbing than effective. Often as I started on the first job, there would come the question, "Is this really the most important, or have I made a mistake in putting it first?" And then the day would be spent in an atmosphere of doubt. Now it became more and more evident that because divine Mind governs all, it would unfold to me whatever intelligent action was required. A sentence from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mrs. Eddy accurately describes this divine activity (p. 506): "Spirit, God, gathers unformed thoughts into their proper channels, and unfolds these thoughts, even as He opens the petals of a holy purpose in order that the purpose may appear." My responsibility, then, was to make sure that each of my activities had behind it what I could honestly call a holy purpose and was not impelled by a sense of human will. As this was done, the petals of each holy purpose were truly opened in ways glorious to behold, and the former method of planning from a human sense of time and direction slowly faded out.

As the understanding that it is truly possible to surmount the beliefs of time and their evil effects continued to unfold, I made a careful study of what our beloved Leader tells us in her writings on the subject of time, giving special attention to her definition of "time," which is found in the Glossary (ibid., p. 595): "Mortal measurements; limits, in which are summed up all human acts, thoughts, beliefs, opinions, knowledge; matter; error; that which begins before, and continues after, what is termed death, until the mortal disappears and spiritual perfection appears."

Frequently we may have a work assignment which seems to demand long hours, strength-consuming effort, and intense concentration almost beyond our capacity. Fear, weariness, boredom, and frustration often ensue. Our prayer is to know that Mind, Spirit, is the source of all action. However, if relief does not promptly come, it is well to consider whether some subtle suggestion of time is the deterrent. When we are truly willing to accept the fact that the Master "set the seal of eternity on time," the truth of the eternality of being frees us from the limiting suggestions of time.

Sometimes the question is asked, Why do students of Christian Science use watches, clocks, and calendars, if time is properly defined as error? We may well answer that the use of these devices is normal and, in fact, essential to the orderly and courteous operation of our human activities. However, if our daily living is subject to any imposition or limitation of clock or calendar, we should carefully examine our thinking to see whether our house is built on the rock of Truth or on the sands of time. Monday morning should never be just another start in the same old routine of life, but rather the dawn of a new day, revealing the glory of infinite being.

Students who study the mission of Christ Jesus carefully are always impressed by the number and variety of the healings of sickness, sin, and death recorded in the Gospels. But even more significant is the fact that in almost every instance the healing was instantaneous. The Bible reports a significant discussion between the Jews and Jesus (John 8:56-58): "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am." Jesus' remarkable statement shows how utterly free he was of time's imposition, and therefore why his healings were instantaneous. When we gain a clearer understanding of this truth and are willing to drop the fetters of time from our concept of life, our healings will approximate the Master's.

Often situations arise in our human relations which are unhappy because time imposes age differences between individuals. When we become convinced that time cannot divide the eternal life of man into categories carrying age labels, we deal more intelligently and lovingly with those who appear to be younger or older. Students of Christian Science who teach Sunday School rejoice in the disappearance of age labels which insist that adults are teaching children. Both pupils and teachers, without regard to their respective ages, find themselves free to accept the unfoldment of Mind during the Sunday School period.

While the so-called march of time insists on the inevitability of such evils as immaturity, retarded growth, ugliness, decrepitude, decadence, incapacity, and so on, "the seal of eternity" disposes of this unholy train and establishes the fact that man is at one with his Father-Mother, God, reflecting in the eternal now the forever newness of Life.

The foregoing observations offer merely an inkling of the wonderful experiences that are available to students of Christian Science as they learn how eternity truly replaces time in all phases of our daily lives. And these blessings may be shared with all mankind as we rejoice in the way of Love universal. To maintain our assurance of these truths, may we all pray the prayer of Jesus (John 17:5), "And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was."

The Silent Christ Is Here

GERTRUDE E. VELGUTH

No liveness dims my happy solitude,
Nor sad repining.
The silent Christ, all radiant, joyous, shining,
Is here to sup with me, to teach, to heal!
We share the sacred meal,
Quaff of Love's brimming cup,
And giving thanks, eat of Truth's bread in unity.
The benediction rests, stays on with me,
Glowing within my heart.

OUR INDIVIDUAL PENIEL

NAOMI PRICE

THE revelation through Christian Science of the perfection of God and man ultimately demands the relinquishment of all belief in a power and presence unlike good. Faithful obedience to the First Commandment (Ex. 20:3), "Thou shalt have no other gods before me," requires human thought to abandon its opinions based upon material sense testimony. This must be done before the Christlike understanding of infinite Love and its perfect manifestation can be fully achieved and enjoyed.

There is no reservation in Christian Science for anything less than complete acknowledgment of the operation of good in every avenue of thought. Mary Baker Eddy says in "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 118): "Human will must be subjugated. We cannot obey both God, good, and evil,—in other words, the material senses, false suggestions, self-will, selfish motives, and human policy." We must conform our views of business affairs, human relationships, home, health, finance, education, sport, politics, and international relationships to the law of perfect cause and perfect effect if we wish to demonstrate the invariable harmony of Soul in daily affairs.

The struggle to allow spiritual reality to become dominant over material belief goes on perpetually in human thought until erring will gives up its false notions in humble acceptance of the truth. The desire to retain just one small grievance or to cherish one resentment or criticism which seems humanly justifiable may attempt to elude detection, but wisdom will at length compel its excision.

Jacob recognized his errors and wrestled with them all night. This struggle was not an affliction but a blessing, for it brought Jacob's thought to a state of subjection, in which it was willing to let spiritual understanding overcome human opinion. The stubborn, willful belief in a mortal sense of life and intelligence gave way to a glimpse of man's spiritual nature, and the victory was a landmark in his experience, changing his entire nature and outlook and bringing to him an immediate betterment of life and circumstance.

In some measure the struggle at Peniel is repeated in every individual's human experience. The revealed truth of man's perfection and loveliness as the expression of God often meets resistance. Obstinate self-will would cling to the false sense of a neighbor as sick, sinful, and hateful and to circumstances as baneful and afflictive.

Christ Jesus was daily about his Father's business, rejecting the belief of sin, sickness, and poverty. Mrs. Eddy also knew the mental warfare in which evil seeks to gain acceptance as reality. Suggestions of loneliness, poverty, cruelty, injustice, and infidelity faded like shadows before her demonstration of purity and obedience to the one God, good. It is therefore with knowledge gained from experience that she writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 568), "Self-abnegation, by which we lay down all for Truth, or Christ, in our warfare against error, is a rule in Christian Science." And she adds farther on (p. 569), "Every mortal at some period, here or hereafter, must grapple with and overcome the mortal belief in a power opposed to God."

This is the daily task of every Christian Scientist and the means by which he fulfills his debt of gratitude to God. As the First Commandment is obeyed in thought and deed, human experience is lifted above the belief of suffering to an enjoyment of heavenly harmony. The sick are healed, the sorrowing are comforted, and old enmities are forgiven and forgotten in the establishment of the understanding of divine sonship and universal brotherhood.

The writer experienced proof of the healing power of self-abnegation when she fell backwards down a flight of fourteen stairs. The suggestion was strong that there was danger of her losing consciousness as a result of several severe blows on her head. However, many years of persistent effort to subjugate human will in accordance with the instruction from "Miscellaneous Writings" quoted in the first part of this article made it natural for her to reject this suggestion with the truth that man is the conscious expression of infinite Mind, forever upright and Godlike. On reaching the foot of the stairs, she was therefore ready to combat the further arguments of mortal mind which flooded thought.

Human policy suggested that it would be unwise for her to carry out her plan of driving through several miles of city traffic in order to visit a friend in need and that after such an experience it would indeed be more comfortable to stay at home. These willful thoughts and selfish motives were rejected. The allness of God was firmly declared, and the perfection of man as the reflection of God resolutely acted upon. The day's assignments were satisfactorily completed, including driving the car some fifty miles. Within a few days there was no memory of the incident apart from gratitude for the healing power of Christian Science.

The battle between good and evil for possession of thought is sometimes fierce. The desire for God's will to be established in consciousness even in the face of contradictory material evidence must be found adequate to overcome the obstinacy of human will.

Christian Science teaches that prayer is the humble acknowledgment of God's allness and that our petition is for grace to enable us to accept in full the implications of this assertion. Jesus prayed (Matt. 6:10), "Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven." The spiritual sense of this line is given by Mrs. Eddy (Science and Health, p. 17), "Enable us to know,—as in heaven, so on earth,—God is omnipotent, supreme." Our prayer is that we may abandon the beliefs of mortal mind and the testimony of the corporeal senses and acknowledge as the only reality the all-power, presence, and operation of divine Principle, Love.

The invalid who longs for healing may well ask himself if he is prepared to know himself, as well as all creation, as the perfect expression of perfect Mind and to abandon all belief in a power and presence apart from good. Does he truly desire to acknowledge the supremacy of good in every aspect of living? This humble willingness to know God as All-in-all will do much to uncover and destroy the erring mortal belief which is the foundation of his suffering.

One is not alone in his individual Peniel. The messages of Truth are with him as surely as the angel was with Jacob in his ordeal. Through Christian Science, the truth is revealed which will bring human thought into subjection to Christ, Truth. Let each one cling to Truth's messages so that these finally take possession of his thought. Then will the light of healing dawn in radiant joy in his consciousness, blotting out the shadows of sickness and sorrow.

THE NATURE OF GOD AND MAN

BRENDA F. SKENE

MANY students of Christian Science find ever fresh joy in the daily, prayerful contemplation of the seven synonyms for God, given on page 465 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. Her reply to the question, "What is God?" is as follows: "God is incorporeal, divine, supreme, infinite Mind, Spirit, Soul, Principle, Life, Truth, Love." These synonymous terms illumine thought with the consciousness of the allness and oneness of divine Being. The quest for the unknowable and unsearchable is ended, and God, the I AM of the Scriptures, shines forth, free from the mists of ignorance that have seemed to shroud an intelligent concept of Deity.

Mrs. Eddy's receptive thought and her single-eyed vision caught and preserved the scientific revelation—God's allness and the consequent unreality of His opposite, evil, matter, mortality. Recording her discovery in her writings, safeguarding it by founding the Christian Science movement, Mrs. Eddy makes it possible for us to find healing truths and to prove that they are demonstrable and good. The divine origin of these truths is proved in the actual experience of anyone willing to subject his thoughts to their regenerating and redemptive power.

Our acceptance and acknowledgment of sonship with God demand that we reflect the qualities inherent in the divine nature, express the holiness that is health and the health that is holiness, and thus separate ourselves entirely from the Adam-dream. This was the way by which our Way-shower, Christ Jesus, triumphed. In him there was no inconsistency of thought, word, or action. He was conscious of his divine origin. Whatever contradicts and opposes God's all-inclusiveness has to be faced and overcome by every one of us until we know ourselves as the likeness of Spirit.

The inquirer may wonder if the understanding of God as One and All can really reveal the presence of the kingdom of God. Christ Jesus proved that it could and did, and he left his example for us. As we know God to be our Father-Mother, our only Mind, our governing Principle, and know ourselves as God's idea, we find that heaven is at hand. This consciousness of heaven's presence enables us to demonstrate salvation and healing. To prove the power of God requires unfaltering consecration to the Christ ideal.

It is the belief of separation from good, or God, that is the cause of our woe—war, grief, sin, sickness, and death. Only in the oneness of Being, the undivided realm of Mind, in which man really lives, is health or wholeness maintained and Spirit's reign unopposed. There are no irreconcilable minds, conditions, or interests in the realm of reality. Each one of us begins at once to prove this by ruling out of thought all beliefs in lawlessness.

Starting with unerring Principle, the source of all spiritual law, we lay a firm basis for right thinking and acting. In "No and Yes" Mrs. Eddy writes (p. 20), "When understood, Principle is found to be the only term that fully conveys the ideas of God,—one Mind, a perfect man, and divine Science."

The new student may be inclined at first to use in his study one or more of the seven synonyms for God to the exclusion of the others. Though no aspect of the nature of God and therefore of His reflection, man, is lacking in any one of these synonymous words, together they radiate in perfect balance the full glory of infinite Principle. The more these terms are studied, the more they shine in new depth and endless meaning, reaching and eradicating known and unknown errors in human consciousness, for God is Truth, living Mind, infinite individuality, imparting and unfolding good to His own ideas.

What release from fear comes to us as we grow in our understanding of Life as Love and Love as Life. "Fear not," was the Master's loving counsel. On one occasion he said (Luke 21:18), "There shall not an hair of your head perish." And did Jesus not imply that the revealing of the Lord, or the I AM, to Moses as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, was the confirmation of continuous being, when he stated clearly (Luke 20:38), "He is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him"?

Mortals may shrink from the surrender of the material sense of life and love for the divine sense. But if they turn from matter to Spirit, they will gain the consciousness of the Love of all love, the Life of all life, the Truth of all truth, transcending even their most exalted human ideal. Only Love, which in its very nature is devoid of corruptible elements, can preclude destructive change, death, oblivion. God, divine Love, cannot see or experience corruption, nor can Love lose sight of its beloved idea. This truth of Love's perfection enriches the affections, heals the body, and satisfies the human craving for perfection.

Our identities are safe with Christ, Truth, in Life everlasting, where we are always spiritually housed and known. No lie is recorded in divine reality; there is no misrepresentation or historical distortion possible in God's realm of perfection. The accuser is not in heaven, our true home; our purity has never been assailed there, and there is no false witness to cast us down from the pinnacle of purity.

Christ, Truth, is ever active in human consciousness, awakening us to recognize our true selfhood, restoring what seemed to be lost, destroying disease, sin, and death. It is by degrees, by daily demonstration of Christ, Truth, that we begin to enter into our natural inheritance, the realm and reign of Mind. Progressively we enjoy Mind's supremacy, freedom, omnipresence, and awaken to a recognition of the relationship and unity of all ideas in heavenly harmony.

Science in its application to humanity is Christian, abundantly compassionate, presenting the allness of Mind in ideas applicable to the least and greatest of mankind's needs. The beginner in this Science should constantly remind himself that in learning the nature of God, he is learning about his own true selfhood as God's reflection. There would be little practical effect from our knowing the truth of God unless such knowing established our true relationship with the divine, unless it defined our own nature and obliterated the false.

To demonstrate step by step this all-inclusive knowledge of the infinite I AM, or God, in the gradual overcoming of all that denies the spirituality of man is to prove the revelation of Christian Science to be practical and divine and our growing understanding to be correct. As we awaken to the truth of being, we become Godlike and manifest the sonship implicit in our relationship to God, our Father-Mother.

DIVINE CONTROL

CLAYTON DEVERL HARDESTY

IN many progressive industrial organizations there is an important department called "Quality Control." The purpose of this department is to maintain a constant control of the perfection of the items produced. This control is necessary to maintain the exactness of each part so that the finished assembly will function properly. Each unit has to be inspected carefully to make certain that no flaw finds its way into the final product. This is done in every department. With a flow of perfect parts into the final assemblage, successful functioning is assured.

In the true creation of Mind, which Christian Science reveals, man cannot deviate from perfection. All is under God's control. God, divine Principle, creates perfection, and nothing imperfect exists that can affect His creation. The Preacher says in Ecclesiastes (3:14), "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it."

In Christian Science we start with perfect Principle, God, and spiritual man, His perfect reflection. In our human experience we sometimes accept erroneous concepts that would deviate us from that perfection. The mistakes or deviations are in the human concept, not in the divine. As the individual learns in Science that he is the reflection of God, he rejects the false, human concept of himself and begins to express harmony in his experience. One must learn the spiritual truths of God and man and put them into practice in order to demonstrate man's reflected perfection.

Regardless of the mistakes we accept, we can never, in reality, lose perfection. It is true in any science that, despite the mistakes made in the application, the fundamentals remain the same. The individual who uses mathematics incorrectly does not affect or influence the basic laws of mathematics. He does not condemn these laws or try to change them to make them conform with his erroneous application. He corrects his misconceptions by learning the law involved, putting it into practice, and arriving at the correct answer. He realizes that this answer has always been present. Man, made in the image and likeness of God, will always be perfect, and nothing can ever change this perfection.

Just as we sometimes need a mathematics teacher to help us correct our false concepts of arithmetic, so we sometimes need a practitioner to help us understand God's divine control of man. When mistakes are presented to the Christian Science practitioner in the form of a patient with a problem, the practitioner utilizes the spiritual truths which he knows. The apparent human tendency to deviate is replaced with the true, divine perfection. Christ Jesus explained this healing operation when he told the people (John 10:10), "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." We know of the divine control which the Master demonstrated in healing the sick by eliminating the human misconceptions of divine law.

We must replace the belief that man deviates from perfection with the facts that there is no matter and that God guides, guards, and governs His own creation. An understanding of these facts brings divine control into operation in human experience. When that which seems to be deviation from perfection appears as a physical problem or an inharmony in home or in business, we are anxious to correct the situation. We do prayerful work to bring forth perfection. But when the deviation appears enjoyable, such as false appetites or a belief of sensation in matter, we sometimes slacken in our effort to correct it.

In the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy reminds us of our inconsistency thus (p. 9): "Dost thou 'love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind'? This command includes much, even the surrender of all merely material sensation, affection, and worship. This is the El Dorado of Christianity. It involves the Science of Life, and recognizes only the divine control of Spirit, in which Soul is our master, and material sense and human will have no place."

The Apostle Paul realized the need for reflecting divine control when he wrote to the Philippians (4:8), "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." When we are constantly acknowledging and practicing truthfulness, integrity, justice, and the other qualities which constitute the perfect man, then we reflect divine control and maintain perfection by rejecting the human deviations of sin, sickness, and death.

We must reflect divine control over our bodies, our homes, and our employment. These make up the assemblage of everyday experience. A sick home relationship or a sick business is not different from a sick body. Through Science all concepts are brought under the control of the divine law of perfection; and our bodies, our homes, and our work can be maintained in their proper functioning by divine law. Mrs. Eddy writes in Science and Health (pp. 208, 209): "A material body only expresses a material and mortal mind. A mortal man possesses this body, and he makes it harmonious or discordant according to the images of thought impressed upon it. You embrace your body in your thought, and you should delineate upon it thoughts of health, not of sickness. You should banish all thoughts of disease and sin and of other beliefs included in matter." These statements illustrate the basic law of divine control in all of our affairs, including home and business.

The successful student of Christian Science does not allow even a few misconceptions to find their way into his concept of completeness. He uses man's God-given dominion and discards erroneous suggestions immediately. This eliminating of the false allows only the true to remain, and he is blessed with harmony.

One cannot declare perfection for himself and then admit that imperfection is real in his business partner or his spouse. Accepting an erroneous part will hinder the perfect unfoldment of the complete whole. Regardless of where the discord seems to appear, the same spiritual truth corrects discord by revealing only the real and perfect. The process of reflecting is a constant activity. God's perfection is manifested everywhere because of the basic truth that God is everywhere.

An interesting experience of the writer's serves as an illustration. He was working next to a man who had a wart on the back of his hand. This co-worker was constantly looking at the growth and even secured a magnifying glass to enlarge his view of the error. These actions annoyed the writer, and within a few days he had a growth on the back of his hand in exactly the same spot. This development awakened him to the fact that he had not exercised his individual reflection of divine control in rejecting imperfection both in regard to his co-worker and to himself. When he utilized this control, the material deviations from perfection on both men soon disappeared. Every place we go, everything we do, everyone with whom we are in contact, must be understood in Science as having part in God's perfect, spiritual creation.

The daily reading of our Lesson-Sermons, outlined in the Christian Science Quarterly, is one of the requirements of our own inspection department. Through our study of this lesson we are awakened to the subtle suggestions of error, which would try to convince us that we are less than perfect. Through this study we come to accept only the perfect as real, and thus we experience healthy, happy lives. We have to do the accepting for ourselves. We cannot expect someone else to do this work for us.

The richness brought to mankind by the revelation of Christian Science in the correcting of human experience through divine control is laid before us by Mrs. Eddy on page 167 of the textbook: "We apprehend Life in divine Science only as we live above corporeal sense and correct it. Our proportionate admission of the claims of good or of evil determines the harmony of our existence,—our health, our longevity, and our Christianity."

I Am Awake

MILDRED S. AINSWORTH

ACTUALLY there is no lack of good and no temptation to believe in bad;
no unsolved problems continuing in rehearsal,
no unhealed grievances to tell,
no unchecked annoyances to revel in.
The child of God has no affinity for any sin.

Gratitude impels the asking of one question.
Abiding in humility, expectantly we pray,
"Father-Mother, Love, can I do more for You and Yours than I am doing?" And the honest question will be asked, the answer heard, in consciousness alight with spirituality.
Receptivity to God's Word abundantly supplies with right activity, with overflowing gratitude for present good, with absolute authority and honesty and wisdom and ability to meet the human need.

And so I turn obediently from failures great and failings small, rejecting fables of divisive mortal sense. Seeking Truth for Truth's sake and obeying its demands unfold God's creation in its clear light.
Bright before me is the way I take. I am awake!

"THE GREAT ATTAINMENT"

E. PEARL TRAVIS

DEEP within the heart of almost every individual lies the desire for self-expression, for purposeful living, for some measure of attainment in his chosen field of endeavor. This desire is not necessarily based upon vanity or self-aggrandizement, because the sole reason for man's being is to express God, the divine Mind, who created him. No matter how much this truth may be obscured by aimlessness or dulled by frustration and discouragement, inevitably the noble destiny of man will shine through the beclouding material senses and find expression.

Our Leader, Mary Baker Eddy, writing on page 428 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," points the way to "the great attainment" when she says, "To divest thought of false trusts and material evidences in order that the spiritual facts of being may appear,—this is the great attainment by means of which we shall sweep away the false and give place to the true." Here indeed is the highest of all pursuits, which sooner or later every individual must undertake.

The world today presents a chaotic picture resulting from misplaced trusts. Generally speaking, mankind have trusted matter to bring them happiness, wealth, health, and success. Yet it has never been proved true that an accumulation of matter holds the key to either happiness or affluence. Nor has it ever been proved true that manipulating matter or trusting inert, material drugs has ever been able to heal mankind of their ills. To look to matter for succor or satisfaction in any way is to build on the shifting sands of mortal belief. All there is to matter is a belief that something besides God possesses substance, life, intelligence.

Many experienced research workers in nuclear and astronomical physics today are recognizing that matter, in its final analysis, is a purely mental concept. There is evidence that mankind are growing restless under their self-imposed bondage to materiality and that a spiritual renaissance is under way. Christian Science reveals the infinitude of God and His idea and the consequent unreality and insubstantiality of matter. When we realize that there is nothing outside the allness of Spirit, what is there for us to trust but Spirit? What is there to fear since God, good, is All?

Perhaps we are tempted to lean too heavily upon others for the solution of our problems. Although in times of need we have the wonderful privilege of calling upon Christian Science practitioners or other Christian Scientists for help, still salvation is essentially an individual experience. We gain great strength and assurance as we trust more and more to our Father-Mother God, knowing that we can never be separated from His loving, directive hand.

Speaking of the wisdom of working gently in the direction of an understanding of the allness of infinity, our beloved Leader writes in "Unity of Good" (p. 5), "Every one should be encouraged not to accept any personal opinion on so great a matter, but to seek the divine Science of this question of Truth by following upward individual convictions, undisturbed by the frightened sense of any need of attempting to solve every Life-problem in a day."

Should it seem a stupendous task to replace false trusts in matter with the conviction that all real being is spiritual, we are assured that the demands of our heavenly Father are wise and loving, and we need not feel under pressure or be frightened into believing that the task must be accomplished in one day. In the words of the Bible (Isa. 28:10): "For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little." This is not to suggest that we can afford to dillydally in this holy endeavor; rather is it for us to realize that the unfoldment is in God's hands, not in ours, and that it cannot be forced through human will.

Situations may be such that we have become accustomed to look to others for our supply. At times we may feel that this hinders our demonstration of a more abundant meeting of our needs. This fallacy is uncovered when we realize that we do not depend on others for our truthfulness, our intelligence, or our ability. We know that as ideas of Mind we reflect these qualities and that the supply of anything needful for our well-being comes to us from God.

Today many are concerned with the shifting of mankind from individual effort to a supine trust in governmental sustenance. Governments need great wisdom in order not to apportion to themselves rights and responsibilities which belong to the individual alone. Support often leads to control. The First Commandment admonishes us (Ex. 20:3), "Thou shalt have no other gods before me."

Just as one tender green leaf is a harbinger of spring's vast awakening, even so a demonstration of the law of God in our experience, however small it seems, is the angel touch that assures us we have entered the true path, and when we trust God and nothing else, the attainment of our goal is certain. As our trust in God becomes more confident, we find that matter loses its spurious claim to control our experience, that fear gives way to joyous reliance upon divine Love, and that the ills resulting from such fears disappear.

The rich rewards resulting from radical reliance on the divine Mind for healing, whether physical, moral, or financial, have been experienced by a family of Christian Scientists over a period of nearly forty years. When the son in this family was about sixteen, he contracted an irritating skin disease while attending high school. Because of his refusal to allow the school nurse to apply a medicated ointment and because of the supposedly contagious nature of the disease, he was sent home. Others with the same disease were allowed to attend school because they were having medical treatment.

The mother took the boy to a Christian Science practitioner, who spoke to him substantially as follows: "You have always had Christian Science help because that is what your parents wanted. Now you are old enough to decide for yourself whether you desire medical or Christian Science treatment."

With some bewilderment in his voice the boy replied: "What else is there to trust? I have no faith in anything else."

The healing did not take place at once. It seemed that the boy's trust was being put to an acid test, but he did not once waiver or weaken in his stand. Even after the healing came, the nurse would not allow him to return to school; for although she conceded that Christian Science might heal some things, she considered this particular disease to be so tenacious that it could not possibly be healed except by medical means. Finally the mother asked whether her son would be able to return if a reputable physician examined him and found him free. Reluctantly it was agreed that under those conditions, he might return.

The mother took the boy to a physician and told him the circumstances. The physician was most kind, and in his letter of certification of the boy's freedom from the disease were these words: "Not only is he free now, but I can find no trace that he has ever had such a disease." All suggestions of resentment at the injustice that had seemed to be manifested were destroyed. This young man has since attained high scholastic honors, but his firm establishment in the truths of Christian Science has proved to be the greatest blessing of all.

The realization and demonstration of the true status of our being, that of the beloved children of God, are the attainments to which all Christian Scientists aspire. The work of divesting "thought of false trusts and material evidences" is worthy of persistent and consecrated effort. The fulfillment of our aspiration will be proportionate to our utilization of our Leader's stirring exhortation to her church members found in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (p. 171): "Trust in Truth, and have no other trusts."

"MAN'S INALIENABLE RIGHTS"

OLGA F. DE GROFF

ONE of the most comforting chapters in the Bible is the ninety-first Psalm. Its loved verses come to one's thought innumerable times as the need arises for comfort, guidance, and protection. There is one verse whose meaning is greatly clarified by the light which Christian Science throws upon it. It is this (verse 7): "A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee."

At first reading the statement might raise the question, "Why should God allow thousands to fall at one's side, and spare that one?" Christian Science reveals God's law, which is available to all. On page 227 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes, "The law of the divine Mind must end human bondage, or mortals will continue unaware of man's inalienable rights and in subjection to hopeless slavery, because some public teachers permit an ignorance of divine power,—an ignorance that is the foundation of continued bondage and of human suffering." That which God has given to man, namely dominion over all the earth, cannot be denied one who understands this fact. Inseparable from each individual is his birthright of liberty and protection under spiritual law.

When we realize our exemption from any law but the divine, when we invoke in our own behalf the benefits of that law, we are at that moment standing within the divine protection of God's outstretched arm. Only as we give consent to the so-called power of false law and allow ourselves to be governed by it do we seem to forfeit the security of God's all-encompassing love, which is, nevertheless, there at all times to bless us in proportion to our awareness of its presence and power and to our utilization of divine law.

The following illustration may help to explain any seeming inconsistency of God's impartial and universal love. Let us assume that a foreigner comes to the United States from a country that does not protect the innocent when laws are infringed. He has not had recourse to civil law protection in situations where he was innocent of any wrongdoing. Consequently he has become resigned to the seeming fact that injustice is inevitable and that he must accept evil as well as good.

Then he finds himself in a country where the individual is acknowledged as a free man, guaranteed protection, and afforded the rights of such an individual as long as he obeys the laws of the land. But if he is unaware of these laws of equity and justice and does not claim this protection and the support of its laws in his behalf, he believes he is in the same predicament in which he found himself when he was in his own country—having no defense, no redress. It is his ignorance of his rights as a free man that binds him to continued self-inflicted bondage. He needs to become enlightened regarding the laws of the land which guarantee his protection and to appeal to those laws.

If we do not claim our "inalienable rights," we cannot enjoy the benefits of divine law, which is already established to ensure order, harmony, and righteous government.

"If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you" was Christ Jesus' promise to his disciples (John 15:7). We are all his disciples when we follow in his footsteps and practice his precepts. Again, as in the Psalm mentioned above, it is a question of abiding in the Christ, Truth, conscious of God's presence, which guarantees our immunity from all evil.

Two men had been employed for many years by the same individual. One day out of a clear sky they were told that their services were no longer needed and that they must look for employment elsewhere. The shock of this sudden news was very great, coming as it did at a time when employment seemed to be difficult to find.

The wife of one of the men was a Christian Scientist. To her, there was only one way to solve this problem, and that was by utilizing the divine laws of God, Principle, as taught in Christian Science. She reasoned along the following lines: God does not create man in His image and likeness only to abandon him to the whims and vagaries of material laws. He creates, sustains, and maintains His own. No material law has the power to deprive man of his inherent rights as the son and heir of God.

This student realized the truth that man can never be unemployed, because he reflects the unceasing activity of Mind. She was free from fear that there would be no source of supply, because she knew that God is ever mindful of His own. Age could be no barrier in her proving man's activity in the kingdom of God. Man stands forever at the ageless, timeless stage of existence because he reflects the infinite, eternal qualities of his Maker. To abide in the secret place of the most High, the ever-presence of divine Love, is the surest home one can have. The wife held fast to these basic truths, and within one month the husband was offered a position which met their need more bountifully than the position he had had. Employment relationship was on a much more kindly basis, and appreciation has since been constantly shown for work well done.

How was it with the other man who had not claimed what was also his inalienable right as a citizen of God's harmonious kingdom? It was months before he found a suitable position, after much worry and frustration. The Christian Scientist had lovingly sought to bring the message of God's constant care for His children to this friend, but he had yielded instead to the suggestions of mortal mind, as evidenced in a sense of helplessness, resentment, and fear for his security.

Because the student of Christian Science had made the Lord her habitation, continually abiding in the consciousness of His protecting care, no evil had befallen her dwelling. She had claimed the rights of her husband and herself as lawful citizens of heaven, under the government of God, good. Truly it is mankind that exclude themselves from the protection which is rightfully theirs. God's love is constant and impartial, including all in one infinite whole, protected and secure.

"God has built a higher platform of human rights, and He has built it on diviner claims," writes Mrs. Eddy on page 226 of Science and Health. And she continues: "These claims are not made through code or creed, but in demonstration of 'on earth peace, good-will toward men.' Human codes, scholastic theology, material medicine and hygiene, fetter faith and spiritual understanding. Divine Science rends asunder these fetters, and man's birthright of sole allegiance to his Maker asserts itself."

The Bible promise still stands as a benediction to mankind (Ps. 91:14), "Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name." Knowing the name—the nature—of God is to realize our immunity from all false laws of matter. Thus shall we claim "man's inalienable rights" and receive divine protection under the omnipotent law of God, our refuge and defense.

In the words of Hymn No. 216 in the Christian Science Hymnal,

O he who trusts in God's protection
And hopes in Him when fears alarm,
Is sheltered by His lovingkindness,
Delivered by His mighty arm;
If ye God's law can understand,
Ye have not builded on the sand.

THE PATTERN OF PROGRESS

ELAINE TASKER

THE tiny seedling holds a promise. As it germinates, pale shoots push upward through the earth; then new leaves reach out to the sunlight, the stem lengthens, and at last the flower blooms in full perfection. How natural is this pattern of progress.

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 117), "A progressive life is the reality of Life that unfolds its immortal Principle." Christian Science teaches that God is Life and that Life is God. Infinite divine Principle is never in or of matter, never confined within the limits of mortal thinking. Life, the origin and source of all true being, is forever imparting itself through its own spiritual ideas. Man is Life's full and perfect expression.

Here, then, in God's unfoldment of spiritual good to man and the universe is to be found the pattern of true progress. This unfoldment of good is continuous, inevitable. It is the divine law, propelling and actuating all experience; it is God's holy purpose, which is individualized according to His spiritual design.

Spontaneity of action and infinite progression are continuous. Nature mirrors these in the rhythm of her world. She points to the divine pattern which God, Life, is perpetually unfolding to man and the universe.

To glimpse something of this pattern is the vital concern of each one of us. Spiritual sense alone can reveal it to us. Christian Science is awakening human thought to the spiritual reality of Life and its action. This Science interprets God's pattern of progress to all who sincerely seek a spiritual understanding of God and man. The consciousness thus enlightened is imbued with spiritual power, joy, and dominion. Human experience is harmonized, health is restored, and right endeavor is rewarded.

The Bible puts on record the holy and satisfying lives of those who perceived something of the perfection and purity of God's pattern of progress. Christ Jesus, the Way-shower, so completely identified himself with the Christ, his spiritual selfhood, that his human life closely patterned the divine at every point throughout his earthly career. He was ever conscious of the divine reality of Life. He healed the sick and raised the dead in obedience to the holy purpose which God was revealing to him for the enlightenment of mankind.

To progress is to go forward. Is not one of the greatest obstacles to our progress the belief that there is a past? The belief in a human background and origin limits our abilities. We cannot find God's progressive plan for ourselves until we have yielded up the false concept of a personal, material history. Perhaps we are blaming a delayed healing or an unsuccessful venture on some event in the past. We cannot go forward and at the same time look backward.

Let us pray as Jesus did (John 17:5), "Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was." Is not this glory the unfolding radiance of our real being, which has always existed in God? When we humbly seek the reality of Life, we discern our true selfhood, which has no beginning and no end.

As a result, the habits of material thinking, which have kept us fettered to the untrue picture of ourselves, are proportionately dissolved. Self-aggrandizement and self-condemnation disappear. We become increasingly aware of the perfection of God's plan for us, which has always existed and which continues to unfold in our individual lives.

A student of Christian Science and her husband felt that it would be right to emigrate to another country in which there appeared to be greater business opportunities. However, there were some arguments against the move, such as few vacancies in the age group of the husband's profession and the need, before their departure, to dispose of a large property at a time when the real estate market was said to be quiet. Being convinced of the divine law of progress that was governing their experience, the couple rejected these arguments and went ahead with their plans.

A month prior to the sailing date the property was sold at a considerable profit, and two weeks after arriving in the new country, the husband accepted a position with a promising future. Although in the next few years his work necessitated travel and residence in different countries, the couple became increasingly aware of the completeness of the holy purpose that embraced their activities.

As the spiritual reality of Life appeared in their thought, limited concepts gave way, and wherever they went, they found comfortable accommodations, enduring friendships, and further scope for their talents. Since their settling in a permanent home, the husband has been promoted to a high executive position in his profession. With great gratitude they are able to trace the pattern of expansive good that has unfolded for them.

Right activity and prosperity should always be evidenced in the life of the Christian Scientist. Each student should expect abundance of good in his experience. Mrs. Eddy says (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 204), "Through the accession of spirituality, God, the divine Principle of Christian Science, literally governs the aims, ambition, and acts of the Scientist."

How infinite is the scope and opportunity of the individual who adopts the spiritual model of progress! Whatever his task, it can be transformed from the dullness of routine to a means of glorifying God. That which is undertaken solely for material gain can never bless, but unselfed service, humility, patience, and obedience to God's purpose open the door to success.

Neither failure nor frustration can enter into the life of the one who recognizes that God's law of perfect action and fulfillment cancels every man-made law that would attempt to hinder progress. The false suggestions that accidents, economic situations, or the climate can interrupt the continuity of our well-being are proved to be powerless when we acknowledge that in reality our only being is spiritual and that man has all good by reflection.

Mrs. Eddy states in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (p. 160), "To live so as to keep human consciousness in constant relation with the divine, the spiritual, and the eternal, is to individualize infinite power; and this is Christian Science." Infinite good is all that lies ahead of each one of us. Let us rejoice now in the completeness of our Father's plan, which will unfold unlimited good for us as we live our lives according to His pattern of progress.

TRUE ATOMIC FORCE

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE reveals that true atomic force is actually spiritual, not material. Mary Baker Eddy says (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 190): "Atomic action is Mind, not matter. It is neither the energy of matter, the result of organization, nor the outcome of life infused into matter." This statement is opposed to the theories and claims of those who are studying, developing, and utilizing the so-called material energy supposed to be latent in a material atom.

From the viewpoint of Christian Science, all matter or material energy is a false belief—that which has no power, presence, or reality. Matter and its so-called energy and action are thus shown to be counterfeits, because Spirit is All and omnipotent and its creations are spiritual, eternal, useful, and indestructible. The only true substance, therefore, is spiritual, and the only real energy or atomic force is evidenced through "Christ," which our Leader defines in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" as (p. 583), "The divine manifestation of God, which comes to the flesh to destroy incarnate error."

Now, Christ, Truth, reveals the Godlike nature of each one of us and our true being as ideas of Spirit; and "incarnate error" is the belief of life and intelligence in matter. The power of the Christ equips each one of us with the might of Spirit. It enables us to meet and destroy through Godlike knowing and living every false threat and effect of the counterfeit beliefs and false claims of materiality.

Jesus demonstrated the practical application of the power of the Christ in destroying human ills and discords and in overcoming all limitations of the flesh. He was a real Scientist, for he knew the laws of Truth, Life, and Love and how to apply them. And he used the power of God, or the force of Mind, when he performed his mighty healing works, which seemed miraculous to human sense.

He demonstrated spiritual power, by freeing a child from the bondage of epilepsy through exalted thought identified with the omnipotence of Spirit. He quieted a storm and raised his friend Lazarus from death after this friend had lain in the grave for four days. To the storm, he said (Mark 4:39), "Be still," and to Lazarus (John 11:43), "Come forth." These commands were uttered with the assurance that God, Life, is the only power, the only presence, and that He controls all creation through spiritual law—the only real atomic force.

Once Jesus told his disciples that a grain of faith would remove great obstacles. Mrs. Eddy tells us that the power of one pure, spiritual thought often has healed a deeply embedded disease of long standing (see Rudimental Divine Science 9:21). In Science, force, the power of the Christ, is an unerring, healing power which never destroys good. An idea of Truth always brings blessings to mankind and casts out evil.

Some there may be who will say, "I cannot accept the fact that Spirit and its ideas have power, since no one has ever seen them." No one has ever seen that which is called a material atom. The only visible evidence of it is seen on a photographic plate in a speck which contains at least a billion atoms.

On endless experimentation and research, mortal mind has built the present-day atomic bomb! But in the light of divine Science this modern invention can be proved harmless.

How can a Christian, faced with the mighty demonstrations of Jesus and the glorious healing works of Christian Science, doubt the power and presence of the Christ, the spiritual energy of Truth and Love? This true energy of Spirit, understood and utilized as the guiding and propelling power in one's daily life, will, as human thought becomes spiritualized, progressively nullify the harmful effects of all false beliefs, including that called the atomic bomb. Through the control and inspiration of divine Principle, men will learn increasingly to adapt the atom to peaceful and useful purposes.

One of the evil effects attributed to atomic explosions is the destruction of human bodies by atomic radiation. How comforting it is to know that all effects of such radiation will ultimately be completely nullified through the divine radiation of Spirit. It will be demonstrated that as the sun sends forth its rays to light up the earth, so Spirit, through its radiating power, sends forth its pure rays of spiritual light to maintain its creation in a state of health, harmony, and eternal serenity and to destroy the claims of physical, mental, and moral darkness: all mortality.

Mrs. Eddy writes (No and Yes, p. 17): "In Science there is no fallen state of being; for therein is no inverted image of God, no escape from the focal radiation of the infinite. Hence the unreality of error, and the truth of the Scripture, that there is 'none beside Him.'"

The power of the Christ, the spiritual energy of Mind, or Spirit, is eternally expressed in the real selfhood of every one of us. Therefore, we are actually equipped with the ability to reject and destroy the beliefs of mortality in all its forms and in its false claims to material power. We can begin now, through spiritually disciplined thinking, to learn how to use the divine energies of Truth to annihilate the claims of materiality, including those of destructive atomic power. This may take time, but it will be accomplished as mortal belief yields to spiritual understanding. Thus step by step we shall demonstrate the truth of Jesus' promise to his disciples (Luke 10:19): "Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

HAROLD MOLTER

OUR TWOFOLD DUTY

IN normal family relationships each member supports the others in tangible ways. The breadwinner, for example, supplies the financial needs, while the homemaker provides an orderly and harmonious household. However, in addition to the provision of the necessary human things, the home is not complete unless it gives evidence of the intangible, spiritual quality of love. Spiritual love is the oil which guards against the friction that physical activity claims to engender. In love there is no friction.

In normal church relationships each member of a Church of Christ, Scientist, likewise gives his tangible support to the human institution through monetary contributions, committee activity, and faithful attendance at Sunday church services and Wednesday testimony meetings, and at membership meetings. But, as in a home relationship, mere physical support is not enough. In addition, there must be a deep love for the church.

To the Christian Scientist this love includes in addition to a pure affection for the visible church, for every worker in it, and for every member of the congregation, a sincere love for God and His spiritual creation. Love is the lubricant which prevents discord and which aids the church militant in its triumphal transformation, in which the temporal increasingly accomplishes its purpose and the true structure is discerned spiritually.

Christ Jesus chided the Pharisees for their lack of spirituality in connection with their divine worship. He said (Luke 11: 42), "Ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God." And then he declared, "These ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone."

While we faithfully perform the necessary duties incident to our church assignments, let us never forget our more important spiritual duty of love for God and His creation, for His judgment and law, for His Church universal and spiritual, based upon Principle, Love.

In order to love and support the church, we must understand what it really stands for. The founding of the church to which Christ Jesus refers rests on these words to Peter, who had glimpsed the Christ (Matt. 16:18): "Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." This church was not to be founded on a person but on the power of God, which Peter discerned. It was a church designed to meet human needs.

In the Historical Sketch from the Manual of The Mother Church by Mary Baker Eddy is this reference to The Mother Church (p. 19), "THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, IN BOSTON, MASS., is designed to be built on the Rock, Christ; even the understanding and demonstration of divine Truth, Life, and Love, healing and saving the world from sin and death; thus to reflect in some degree the Church Universal and Triumphant."

The eternal, spiritual temple cannot be thrown down. Though a material edifice can be razed, its ever-improving and useful purpose to humanity is continued to the degree that the spiritual Church entity is discerned and understood. The spiritual temple is the model which we should consistently hold in thought while taking the human footsteps in carrying out our institutional responsibilities as members.

The great need is for us to see Church in its true nature, as it exists in Spirit, and then to strive earnestly every day to magnify that Church in our hearts. As we do, we shall find the true Church expressed in all of our relationships with others, whether they be members with us or nonmembers of a Church of Christ, Scientist. Mary Baker Eddy declares in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 35), "Our church is built on the divine Principle, Love." And she adds, "We can unite with this church only as we are new-born of Spirit, as we reach the Life which is Truth and the Truth which is Life by bringing forth the fruits of Love,—casting out error and healing the sick."

The enemy of the human institution is to be found in our failure to love and honor the true Church. We cannot neglect either part of our twofold duty. If we think we have accomplished our full responsibility by merely joining The Mother Church or a branch church, by financial support, church attendance, or committee activity alone, we are in error. Such human action and activity are important, but the metaphysical support must not be forgotten or neglected. We must not only join the human institution, but we must unite in giving full metaphysical support.

Each member of The Mother Church, even though he may live far from one of its branches, can establish the true Church in his consciousness. The spiritual activity of God in one's heart and the recognition that Truth and Love are the foundations upon which all true worship is built will aid in the establishment, growth, and continuity of the human institution.

In a letter written to the church members in Oconto, Wisconsin, Mrs. Eddy, after expressing joy at their willingness to part with their pastor so that he might aid her in her work, said (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 149): "May this sacrifice bring to your beloved church a vision of the new church, that cometh down from heaven, whose altar is a loving heart, whose communion is fellowship with saints and angels. This example of yours is a light that cannot be hid."

Spurious arguments may seem to keep us from doing our daily work for the church. Material prosperity may blind members to the need of loving and supporting the church. Error may claim that we do not have time to devote to either phase of our twofold duty. These spurious arguments should be rejected. Actually we do not have time to neglect our duty.

We can benefit greatly by loving performance of our dual duty to church. This church work aids in opening the channels of opportunity to every aspect of our daily lives. Our devotion to church will bless not only the church institutionally, but our lives and the lives of others as Christ, Truth, finds freer expression in our thoughts. Should we be tempted to lag momentarily in our metaphysical support of the church and be content merely to give our material contribution, may we give ear to the counsel of Jesus, our Way-shower; "This ought ye to have done and not to leave the other undone."

JOHN J. SELOVER

WRITING FOR THE PERIODICALS

PROBABLY every publishing company welcomes a large volume of contributions. And what publishers look for is excellence of quality in the manuscripts submitted. This is true of the Journal, Sentinel, and Herald Editorial Department of The Christian Science Publishing Society. Even though our contributors are not often professional writers, they have something important to say. There is always room for contributions of fine metaphysical quality.

A good article is obviously the result of scientific demonstration. Such an article is evidence that the author has drawn close to God, has listened for the promptings of divine Mind, and has recorded what he has heard. There is no limit to the variety and newness of ideas which can be heard if the listening is unselfed and reverent. Mary Baker Eddy says in the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 520), "Human language can repeat only an infinitesimal part of what exists." One can scarcely imagine the wealth and beauty and strength of what has never been uttered concerning the truths of being.

Freshness of approach in the application of fundamental facts of Science to human problems comes to thought more readily as the Christian Science movement progresses and more individuals yield to the truth of divine Mind's allness and of man's spiritual vitality as the reflection of Mind. Countless inspired meanings of Bible teachings are certain to appear as human thought becomes spiritually enlightened and awakes to grasp those meanings. So much can be said concerning the Scriptures. The student should be ever on the alert to discern the deep import of their messages and to share his findings with the world through the Christian Science periodicals. However, unsound and extreme interpretations of the Bible should be avoided.

The purpose of these periodicals is to keep the Scientists' unfoldments of the practical application of Truth abreast of the times and to instruct the public in the method of scientific, spiritual healing. In the periodicals the basic truths which Mrs. Eddy discovered are reiterated, and individual developments of those truths are set forth. Convincing illustrations of healings are always helpful in the strengthening of a discussion, but they are not required in every article.

Originality of presentation does not call for strained or affected style, but should be the result of genuine inspiration. Illuminating truths clothe themselves naturally in suitable language. Mrs. Eddy used every possible language means to make her message clear, and so should we. Our magazines reach many types of readers, many levels of education. To smother a message in unnecessary words diminishes the effectiveness of writing and makes it unacceptable for publication. Writers should let ideas rather than an abundance of adjectives strengthen their sentences. Wisdom and clarity are needed in stating the truths of Christian Science, and if these qualities are embodied in a contribution, the healing power of the message will be assured.

Variety of subjects should not be a problem when one realizes that there is no limit to divine ideas. Mrs. Eddy says in "Retrospection and Introspection" (p. 84), "Centuries will intervene before the statement of the inexhaustible topics of Science and Health is sufficiently understood to be fully demonstrated." And not only is there an inexhaustible array of topics to be considered and discussed in our periodicals, but endless unfoldment is possible to any spiritual topic. This is because the ideas revealed in Science and Health are divine, and whatever is divine is infinite, not only in development, but in individual application.

Perhaps Christ Jesus was teaching this fact in his parable of the mustard seed, "which," he said, "when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth: but when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it" (Mark 4:31, 32).

Mrs. Eddy sometimes shows by the content of a simple statement of truth what vast application is possible to a divine idea. For instance, on page 428 of Science and Health she says, "The author has healed hopeless organic disease, and raised the dying to life and health through the understanding of God as the only Life."

Unfoldment is the nature of spiritual creation, and the quality of metaphysical writing is enhanced when unfoldment leads an author to a higher and more profound understanding of God's creation. The good Father is not partial in His bestowal of unfoldment; He gives to all the ability to perceive the development of ideas which is taking place continually in His kingdom. The kind of listening the student does determines his ability to hear what divine Mind is perpetually uttering, to demonstrate in some degree what he has heard, and to write it down for the edification of others.

Whether an article is long or short, it should be concise and should leave the reader with a well-defined concept to strengthen his understanding of Science. Periodicals which publish metaphysical discussions of spiritualizing quality will do much toward leading to Truth unnumbered seekers who long for something real in religious revelation.

Our periodicals are our missionaries, and they should receive our earnest care, not only by our subscriptions to them, but by our contributions to their pages. Those who are best qualified through experience, education, and inspiration to write for our magazines will find time for that service when they consider the pure purpose our Leader had in mind when she founded them. The good quality of their contributions will unfold her purpose. Great numbers of readers will be blessed, and God's kingdom will be closer to all mankind.

SUPPORTING OUR HERALDS IN THEIR MISSION

In response to a widespread interest in the various editions of The Herald of Christian Science, the Editors are taking this opportunity to explain something of the purpose of the Heralds and the nature of their contents.

Our Leader, Mary Baker Eddy, who gave the name to each of our periodicals, lists them and indicates their mission in an item entitled "Something in a Name" in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany." Here she gives the mission of the Heralds, when she speaks of the German edition of the Herald, the only Herald published at that time. To quote (p. 353): "The third, Der Herold der Christian Science, to proclaim the universal activity and availability of Truth."

The Heralds, surmounting language barriers, are proclaiming "the universal activity and availability of Truth" in nine languages. There is also an edition in English Braille. Naturally, the various language editions—German, French, Scandinavian (Danish-Norwegian-Swedish), Dutch, and Spanish-Portuguese-Italian—are intended primarily for those parts of the Field where the languages of those editions are spoken, and the Heralds, therefore, can in no way replace, or be substituted for, The Christian Science Journal or the Christian Science Sentinel.

Our Heralds are unusual in their make-up, having the English opposite the translation. For this reason they are helping many who wish to learn English in order to be able to read our Leader's writings in the original language. The contents of each edition are selected with the thought of meeting the needs of the readers of that edition. A large portion of the material in the Heralds is reprinted from the Journal and the Sentinel. Occasionally religious articles are also reprinted from The Christian Science Monitor, and from time to time articles and editorials appear which have not previously been published. Articles and testimonies written originally in foreign languages are often included. Therefore the same articles do not appear in all the Heralds.

There are many ways in which the readers of our periodicals can support the Heralds in the fulfilling of their great mission. Some readers may wish to subscribe to them for themselves; others may wish to send subscriptions to individuals or to literature distribution committees of branch churches or societies where the Heralds meet a special need; and still others may prefer to put the amount they would pay for the subscriptions into the Donation Account of The Christian Science Publishing Society for this purpose.

The Journal, Sentinel, and Herald Editorial Department is always glad to answer any inquiry about the Heralds. However, subscriptions, subscription donations, and any questions relating to them should be sent to the Circulation Department of The Christian Science Publishing Society. Correspondence intended for either of these two departments should be addressed to the proper department in The Christian Science Publishing Society, One Norway Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

NURSES TRAINING COURSE

Opportunities for qualified Christian Scientists who intend to devote themselves to the profession of Christian Science nursing are available at both Sanatoriums of the Christian Science Benevolent Association. Those who complete this course may serve as private nurses in the Field, in nursing homes, and in visiting nurse services, as well as in the Sanatoriums from time to time.

Address inquiries to Personnel Department, 107 Falmouth Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

THE REQUIREMENTS FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE MOTHER CHURCH

Church membership is a rewarding experience. Sometimes a student may wonder, "Am I good enough to become a member of The Mother Church?" The requirements are simple: a deep desire for spiritual progress; regular study of the weekly Lesson-Sermons as outlined in the Christian Science Quarterly; and earnest reliance upon Christian Science alone for healing.

Application blanks may be obtained at Christian Science Reading Rooms, from practitioners listed in The Christian Science Journal, or from clerks of branch churches and societies. Applications may also be obtained from GORDON V. COMER, Clerk, 107 Falmouth Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing

I SHOULD like to express gratitude for Christian Science and especially for the healing of an infected foot. The healing was the result of mental surgery, which took place through the operation of Truth, as we understand it in Christian Science.

I wakened one morning with pain and discomfort in my foot. It was swollen and inflamed, and walking was very difficult. A large lump appeared on the top of the foot and increased steadily in size throughout the day. It was not possible to get a shoe on; so I wore a slipper and attempted to go about as usual.

My limp brought inquiries from well-meaning friends, and some expressed fear that serious consequences would result if I did not consult a surgeon. Being a devoted student of Christian Science and having had many healings and blessings in the past through the application of this Science, I did not hesitate to rely completely on the healing power of God. Because there was much fear on the part of friends, I asked the help of a Christian Science practitioner.

By this time the foot and part of the leg were badly swollen, and I was forced to retire to my bed. I was living in a men's club, and inasmuch as I had to have my meals served in my room, it became generally known that I was ill. However, I was so convinced of God's omnipresence and felt so keenly this presence that I refused to respond to the fear surrounding me. I knew that my healing did not depend upon my being in any certain place but that as God's perfect child I could receive His love and help right where I was.

The next evening the practitioner came to see me, and together we prayed and talked of the goodness of God. It became very clear to me that because God is perfect and man is His image and likeness, then man, reflecting God, must be perfect.

I saw that the false sense of man, a mortal, is not the image of God, who is Spirit, and that it mattered not what seemed to be going on with the dream man, called a mortal. I further saw that man in God's image could not be infected, poisoned, swollen, sick; therefore I was not waiting to be healed of anything but the false sense I had been entertaining of a material body.

As the practitioner sat silently knowing the truth which Christ Jesus declared would make us free, I felt something moving in my foot and spoke of it to the practitioner. She declared, "The law of God is operating to remove from consciousness the belief that matter is real and that disease can attach itself to the image of God." By this time I had ceased to pray to get rid of something, for I now saw clearly that in reality I had been, was then, and always would be, perfect. I thanked God for freedom, which I knew was mine as the child of God.

At that moment my foot began to drain, and very quickly it was reduced to its normal size. The pain left me, and in a short time I was able to be up and about my work as usual. At no time was I tempted to do anything but place radical reliance on God, the great Physician. I realized clearly that the same spiritual law that operated in Christ Jesus' day was still in operation, and I knew that it was sufficient for my need.

My gratitude is unbounded for the many blessings Christian Science has brought me, for membership in The Mother Church and a branch church, for class instruction, and for this experience which enabled me to prove so quickly the healing power of Christian Science. It is difficult to find words with which to thank God for our beloved Leader, Mrs. Eddy, and for all who are so unselfishly devoting themselves to blessing all mankind.—John M. Burns, Jr., New York, New York.

The statements made in these testimonies with regard to healings have been carefully verified. The original testimonies and their respective verifications are on file for reference with The Christian Science Publishing Society.—THE EDITORS.

"ONLY through radical reliance on Truth can scientific healing power be realized," writes our beloved Leader, Mary Baker Eddy, on page 167 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." When a child I had the opportunity of proving the truth of this statement.

One day while attempting to walk the top of a fence, I fell onto some rocks below. I was able to go into the house, and my parents found upon examination that I had suffered a severe cut. Although they were both students of Christian Science, my father's first thought was that we would have to call a doctor and have some stitches taken. I had attended the Christian Science Sunday School since the age of four and had learned to trust God completely in any time of need. When the suggestion of a doctor was made, I jumped to my feet exclaiming: "No, sir! Christian Science will heal this!"

By this time my parents had collected their thoughts and were voicing statements of Truth concerning the real relationship of God and man. My father left the room to get a cloth and water to bathe the cut. As I lay on the bed waiting for his return, I had no sense of fear, but only a complete faith in the healing power of God. When my father returned, he found that the bleeding had already stopped and that the cut was healed. This instantaneous healing has been of much inspiration to me.

Through our "radical reliance on Truth" we proved that God's child is complete and perfect at all times and that any contradictory evidences are only illusions of mortal mind. That experience, which happened over thirty years ago, has been an inspiration to me, and the efficacy of Mrs. Eddy's statement has been proved over and over again in the intervening years.

One night when our young daughter was four years old, she woke up screaming. When I went to her, she said that her body hurt and that she could not move her legs. She was immobile from the waist down. Both her father and I started immediately to declare aloud "the scientific statement of being" (Science and Health, p. 468).

The child was apparently in intense pain, but we continued declaring the truth. I went to the telephone to call a practitioner, but could not reach her. The necessity for a constant declaration of God's omnipotence and omnipresence appeared so urgent that I did not take the time to look up the telephone number of another practitioner.

We kept assuring our daughter that she was really God's perfect child and that God controlled her every action. After about fifteen minutes she became quiet, but still insisted that she could not move her legs. We kept on praying, as we had learned to do in Christian Science, and after a few more minutes she sat up and little by little moved her legs until she had her feet on the floor. Then she walked into the living room. She sat beside me while we read articles from the Christian Science periodicals and rejoiced that once again we had proved the ever-presence of God, good. After another half-hour, she returned to bed and went immediately to sleep. There have never been any aftereffects from or any recurrence of the difficulty.

I am so grateful to have had the privilege of attending a Christian Science Sunday School until the age of twenty. There the all-powerful truth became a solid foundation for governing my way of thinking. I am grateful too that our daughter is also able to attend the Sunday School and is already putting into practice the lessons she is learning there. Words can never express the gratitude we feel for Mrs. Eddy, who was divinely inspired to give us this practical religion and who established the many activities of the Christian Science movement.—(Mrs.) Maxine Foster, Seattle, Washington.

I am grateful to verify the experience related in the foregoing testimony of the child falling off the fence, as I am the testifier's mother and witnessed the healing. Christian Science has been my only physician for over forty years, and through its study and application I have been healed of hay fever, a badly sprained ankle, severe burns, and other physical difficulties. Also

I experienced complete protection in an automobile accident. I am very grateful for all the benefits I have received through the study of Christian Science and for Mary Baker Eddy, who has shown us how to use the truth which Jesus taught.—(Mrs.) Otilie L. Stalling, Seattle, Washington.

WHAT a joyful event it was when I learned through the blessed teachings of Christian Science that we can find harmony, love, health, and holiness—the kingdom of heaven—here and now through spiritual living and thinking! I am grateful for physical healings, including those of hemorrhoids, constipation, influenza, headaches, and effects of accidents. A tendency to allow small things to irritate me, the temptation to blame others if things went wrong, curiosity about the affairs of other people, and the morbid practice of looking back with regret have been banished by a knowledge of their false origin.

My small son got up one morning with sore eyes and did not want to go to school. After breakfast we studied a part of the Bible Lesson in the Christian Science Quarterly, repeated the Lord's Prayer, and gratefully remembered that man is God's perfect child. Then I told my son that if his eyes should hurt him while at school, to repeat the Lord's Prayer, the First Commandment, and the first beatitude. He went off to school, and I continued to work prayerfully for him. When he came home for lunch, his eyes were no better.

This impelled me to examine my own thinking, and I saw that I should have given him some simple, specific truth to use. Upon sending him back to school, I told him that if his eyes troubled him to think of eyes as really spiritual, not material.

"Is that all, Mummie?" he asked.

"Yes, that is all," I replied, and he departed for school very happy. When school was out he joyfully ran home, completely free. This same boy had many other healings through the power of God's Word.

I learned a lesson of obedience to Principle and overcame false pride through an experience which has been of inestimable value to me. Soon after I accepted Christian Science a very inharmonious condition came up concerning my home. I was not able to overcome this trouble; so I asked for help from a practitioner. In our conversation regarding this discord it came to me that I was living in a house with a rent too high for my income and that I was doing this because of false pride. I saw that I must change this wrong way of thinking, which was the root of my trouble, and be willing to find a home at a rent I could afford, even if I had to leave the district where I was living.

My efforts to find another house were not successful, and the practitioner pointed out that perhaps false pride was making me unwilling to consider leaving that district. As I pondered what she had said and looked deep into my own thought, I resolved I would do my best to be obedient and willing to go where God led me.

I felt happier then, and the next day I visited all the rental agencies I had time for. I was about to return home, but at that moment a God-given intuition came to my thought to go to one more agent. Though I was tempted to go home, I obeyed the intuition. In the listings held by this agent the name of a street stood out to me, and I asked about it. I was informed that it was in the district I was living in, and the rent of the house there was one I could afford.

My prayer of gratitude ascended immediately, for I at once knew I had found the house for me. I was so confident about this that I did not go to see the house until the next day. When I did go the house proved to be exactly what I needed. The wonderful thing about this experience was that I had not asked any agents for a house in this district, yet when I became obedient to God, I found a desirable place in the location I preferred. I learned then and have proved through many years since that all good comes from God, Love.

Christian Science has brought love, joy, gratitude, and constant protection to me. I am grateful for membership in The Mother Church, for the joy of taking part in branch church work, and for all the activities of the Christian Science movement. Also I am grateful for class instruction and for the feasts of love at our yearly association meetings.

My heart goes out in love and gratitude to our dear Leader, Mrs. Eddy, who has given to us her divinely inspired revelation of God and His Christ, which Jesus demonstrated and which heals all discord, sin, and sickness. I am profoundly grateful to be a Christian Scientist and to follow our Leader as she followed Christ.—(Mrs.) Margaret Hope, Victoria, British Columbia, Canada.

I WISH to express my gratitude for all the good that has come to me through the ministrations of Christian Science. My mother was healed of tuberculosis through reading Science and Health by Mrs. Eddy. My sister and I were born after this healing took place, and my mother lived a healthy and vigorous life, raising her family according to the teachings of Christian Science.

I am very grateful for the help Christian Science afforded me in the raising of my two sons. While they were quite young, it became necessary for me to support myself and them. I clung steadfastly to the teachings of our religion, devoting every spare moment to realizing the truth as I had been taught to do. Step by step debts were dissolved, and I found my place in the business world again, after having been out of it for fifteen years.

Shortly after I became employed by a large corporation in the eastern part of the United States, its officers announced they were moving to the Midwest and expressed the hope that I would go with them. I did, and while in their employ I gained much valuable experience and progressed until I was in the top secretarial position. I held continually to the truth that God is my intelligence and that I could do what was correct under every circumstance.

After fourteen years in the Midwest I felt that it was right for me to return to the East again in order to be nearer members of my family. I worked as we are taught in Christian Science to know that God has need of all His ideas and has provided a place for each one to express right activity. In spite of such remarks as, "Companies do not wish to hire those who are near retirement age," within two days after I arrived I found a very good position, where all my previous experience was needed.

During all these years there have been many physical healings. Blood poisoning, infected tonsils, eczema of the scalp, and so-called children's diseases are a few of the conditions that have been healed. I had the privilege of class instruction several years after leaving Sunday School, and since that time I have worked out most of my problems by myself. There have been a few times when it was necessary for me to call on the help of a Christian Science practitioner, and the help has been lovingly given.

I wish to express gratitude for the privilege of serving in branch church activities. Working on committees has given me confidence and courage. Many times when problems have been depressing, attendance at committee meetings or working for the church has given me the needed inspiration. All in all, words are inadequate to express my gratitude for the good that has been mine, and all I can say is, "Thank You, Father."—(Mrs.) Ada R. Lannamann, Stamford, Connecticut.

I am glad to verify my mother's testimony. It was her consecrated teaching and example that encouraged me as a teen-ager to continue studying and applying Christian Science. I am grateful to say that I have been healed of different forms of sickness.

The understanding of God's omnipotence obtained in the Sunday School, as a member of a Christian Science Organization at college, and as a worker in branch church activities brought me unharmed through many dangerous missions during World War II. Others on my ship were also benefited, for as Mrs. Eddy says in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (p. 210): "Good thoughts are an impervious armor; clad therewith you are completely shielded from the attacks of error of every sort. And not only yourselves are safe, but all whom your thoughts rest upon are thereby benefited." On one occasion an obviously superior enemy force broke off an engagement and withdrew. Serving concurrently as what was then known as a volunteer Christian Science Wartime Worker was a privilege for which I am also grateful.

The opportunity to bring up our children in Christian Science is deeply appreciated by my wife and me. One of my greatest joys is to hear my wife, who became a student of Christian Science shortly before our marriage, say, "I am so grateful for the freedom we have from false beliefs and medical restrictions as a result of our study of Christian Science."—Donald G. Lannamann, Stamford, Connecticut.

FOR the past twenty-four years Christian Science has been a blessing and an unfailing guide in my life. As small children my sister and I attended an orthodox Sunday School fairly regularly; then we became uninterested in attending any more. Our mother asked us if there was another Sunday School we would like to attend. We immediately proposed the Sunday School of a playmate who was a Christian Scientist. I have always been grateful for the love that was expressed in the home of our playmate, for I feel sure it was this love that drew us to the Christian Science Sunday School.

I had always been a very fearful child, and the release from my fears through my attendance at the Sunday School and through my reading of the textbook, Science and Health by Mrs. Eddy, has remained a constant inspiration to me.

For the past fourteen years Christian Science has been the only physician my husband and I have had in raising three children. We have had many healings in our family, including those of measles, pneumonia, mumps, and sprained ligaments. Among the other problems solved have been those of supply, business, human relations, and other conditions too numerous to mention. We have been very grateful for the solutions and for the lessons learned.

I should like to express gratitude for the healing which introduced my husband to Christian Science, thus enabling us to work together in this wonderful religion. When we had been married but five weeks my husband, who was then an Army test pilot at an aircraft plant, had a serious crack-up while testing one of the planes. The plane was almost completely demolished.

At the very minute his plane crashed I was doing some prayerful studying. My thought was uplifted by the glorious truths I was reading, and as I studied, my thought rested on my husband. I knew that he too was in God's care. A few hours later I received a telephone call telling me my husband had crashed. His commanding officer's wife lovingly drove me some seventy-five miles to the Army hospital where they had taken him. The hospital attendants said that it was a miracle that he had survived the crash. One of the most serious of his injuries was a deep gash across his forehead, and his eyes were filled with tiny particles of broken glass. His mental attitude was not good, for he was worried as to the outcome of his injuries.

The doctors said he would probably always have to wear glasses and would suffer from migraine, or nervous headaches. It was not a pretty picture they painted. I offered him the one thing I was sure could help him: Christian Science. At first I gave him some copies of the Christian Science Sentinel to read, and then I took him our textbook. I have always been grateful that he accepted Science immediately and said it was the truth he had been seeking for a long time. We started working on the problem in Science, and at the end of seventeen days he was released from the hospital. His eyes were normal, and he has never worn glasses. Moreover, he has never had headaches, migraine or otherwise.

Mrs. Eddy says in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (p. 210): "Beloved Christian Scientists, keep your minds so filled with Truth and Love, that sin, disease, and death cannot enter them. It is plain that nothing can be added to the mind already full." I am grateful that thoughts of Truth and Love were present with me and my husband at just the moment they were needed.

My husband and I both joined a branch church three years after this experience, and we joined The Mother Church shortly thereafter. I am so grateful for church membership, because it has afforded much spiritual growth and progress. Also I am deeply grateful for the blessed experience of class instruction. My heart overflows with gratitude to our beloved Leader, Mrs. Eddy, whose purity of thought and purpose enabled her to discover Christian Science, which meets our every need and gives us a better understanding of how to demonstrate the Christ, Truth, as exemplified by Christ Jesus.—(Mrs.) Mary Ann Reichard West, St. Louis, Missouri.

My first testimony was published in the Sentinel of August 22, 1936. Since that time I have had many experiences of healing, protection, and supply. I would like to express my gratitude again with the hope that it will encourage others, especially those who are young students of Christian Science.

The ninety-first Psalm begins with the assurance of divine protection: "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." An experience I had when very new in my study of this Science proved the value of listening to and obeying the still small voice of Truth. I had been placed in charge of a crew of men who were fighting a forest fire in the mountains. The flames, which had burned about one hundred and sixty acres, had been partially brought under control when I saw two spirals of smoke coming from the other side of a hill. I notified the men that I was going to see where the smoke was coming from and to request additional help.

Then I started across the burned area, as this was the shortest route to my car and it was necessary for me to reach a telephone which was some distance away. As I crossed the burned area a section of the mountainside started to slide. I felt led to drop to the ground, and as I did so I declared the truth, as we are taught in Christian Science, and tried to realize that God, divine Mind, was present and would show me what to do.

The slide was about one hundred and fifty feet in width. After sliding with it about the distance of a city block I felt impelled to rise and run to the right, and I was soon on solid ground. One foot had been injured, but knowing that there are no accidents in divine Mind, I was able to make my way down the mountain to my automobile, a distance of about half a mile. All this time I had been steadfastly declaring the truth and trying to realize that I was under divine protection.

After driving five miles to a telephone, I called headquarters and requested another fire-fighting crew. Also I reported the injury to my foot. I was asked if I could take care of the time slips of the fire fighters, and I replied that I could. Then I returned to where the men were patrolling the fire.

The next morning I was requested to drive to town and have the foot X-rayed in compliance with regulations. I was able to drive the sixty-five miles to have this done, and after the X ray was developed, the physician said that although a bone had been broken it was perfectly set and had commenced to heal. This healing took place over thirty years ago, and since then the foot has never given me any trouble.

This proof of the healing power of prayer in Christian Science increased my desire to study and learn more about this wonderful religion. I am indeed grateful for the many healings experienced during the past thirty years and for the protection and guidance I have had. The ninety-first Psalm assures us (verse 11), "He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways." And in the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health, Mary Baker Eddy gives the definition of "angels," which reads in part (p. 581), "God's thoughts passing to man." Through the years I have felt many times the divine guidance of angel thoughts.

In closing I wish to express deep gratitude to our Leader, Mrs. Eddy, for her consecration in studying the Scriptures, writing our textbook, and establishing the Christian Science movement. I am also grateful for membership in The Mother Church and a branch church, for class instruction, and for the annual association meetings. These have all encouraged me to take part in church activities, through which many blessings have come into my experience. — Claude Walter Beardsley, Sacramento, California.

OVER forty years ago a friend asked me to read the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health by Mrs. Eddy. To this day I am still rejoicing, for Christian Science has opened a whole new field of thought for me. It has given me a greater insight into the true value of spiritual things, enabled me to put God in my everyday life, and find peace that passes all understanding. Before I had finished reading this textbook, I found that I was completely healed of chronic constipation, which for years had made me almost desperate. Then I realized that the tendency to take cold was lessening and that the annual attack of grippe I usually suffered had entirely passed me by.

Soon after that I married, and although I still believed in the great truth of Christian Science, I was not very alert to practice it. After losing three babies by premature births, I decided that it was time to put myself in God's hands. When I was expecting a baby for the fourth time, the same conditions presented themselves. I went to a Christian Science practitioner for help to eliminate my fears. The work was beautifully done, and I had a lovely daughter. This child will always be a living proof to me that God is at hand and that we can confidently trust in Him.

When our daughter was two years old, a severe attack of croup developed, and one night she appeared to be passing on. We called a practitioner for help, and as her words came over the telephone, "In God she lives and moves and breathes," my husband called to me that the baby was free. And that was the end of the croup. This child was also wonderfully protected from children's diseases. At times all evidence of contagion disappeared in a few hours.

As our daughter grew older, several growths appeared on her feet. They became quite alarming, and she felt that she should consult a doctor since she could hardly walk to school. The doctor informed her that the only way to remove the growths would be to operate, and even then there was no assurance that they would not return. That answer was enough for our daughter. She turned to Truth and had several treatments from a Christian Science practitioner, who helped her to realize the presence of perfect God and perfect man. She became more gentle and loving, and as this change was taking place, the growths began to change their appearance. One night after her bath she called me to come in and see that they had all come away. Truth had manifested much greater skill than any surgeon's knife could have done.

My husband had a large lump in the middle of his forehead for many years. Finally it became so large that he could not wear a hat. He continually declared its nothingness, and one day, without any pain whatsoever, the lump opened and drained. It healed so completely that one would never know what had taken place.

Three large bald spots on my head were completely covered with hair by my realizing the truth of the words found in the Bible (Luke 12:7), "Even the very hairs of your head are all numbered." When the hair returned, it was better than ever. In one spot that had formerly been gray, the hair came in a shade of brown to match the rest.

Several years ago fallen organs caused me discomfort and concern. This indeed was a testing time, and the thought sometimes occurred to me that it would be wise to go to a doctor. But I knew that the power of God is much more effective than a surgical operation would be. Love can move mountains, and I had proved God's power before. One day when I was deep in study I felt so uplifted that I was sure I had figuratively touched the hem of Christ's garment. As I arose and said, "Thank You, God," I could actually feel something happening to me, and I realized that I was healed. This healing proved the statement on page 167 of Science and Health, "Only through radical reliance on Truth can scientific healing power be realized."

Two years ago I was troubled with severe hemorrhoids. I recognized the condition as another opportunity to prove the power of God. In about three days they completely disappeared. I am still rejoicing over this wonderful healing, for it gave me a greater understanding of God.

I am a member of The Mother Church and a branch church, and truly my cup is running over. I am full of gratitude.—
(Mrs.) Ruth Frazer, West Orange, New Jersey.

I CAME to recognize the healing power of Christian Science ten years ago when I had a painful muscular trouble and pains in the head. Since childhood I had had great faith in God's goodness, and when I at last realized that of myself I could do nothing, I was led in my extremity to the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

I had not read far when my thought was arrested by Mrs. Eddy's reference on page 23 to the two words "trustfulness" and "trustworthiness." As I pondered these two words with the help of a dictionary, I was instantaneously healed. At the same time other discordant physical conditions from which I had suffered for many years completely left me. For some time I had been realizing that the fault lay in my own thinking, and when I systematically cleared my thought of all resentment toward others so that my heart went out to them in love, I was prepared for the blessing.

The realization came that all real being is beautiful and that man is loving and intelligent, dwelling in the realm of Spirit and untouched by birth, decay, or death. My gratitude was great, and I knew that my life must now be dedicated to this beautiful way of living that could bring not only relief from suffering but true beauty into the hearts of mankind. I very soon became a member of a Christian Science Society, where I sensed the beauty and love of God all around me. Later I received class instruction.

While looking forward to my first annual association meeting I became ill with an attack of diarrhea. I overcame the inability to take food by realizing that sustenance comes directly to man from Mind and that there is no substance or intelligence in material food to hinder normal action. With the help of a practitioner I gained freedom from the attack and was able to attend the association meeting. Some months later, however, I became quite ill in the night with another attack of the same sort. I silenced the discord through realizing that man is wholly spiritual, held in the completeness of Mind's allness. I felt weak the next day, but since then I have had no further trouble from diarrhea.

For some time I had difficulty in breathing whenever the wind was blowing. This difficulty was healed instantaneously when I thought of the definition of "wind" in the Glossary of our textbook. It reads in part (p. 597), "That which indicates the might of omnipotence and the movements of God's spiritual government, encompassing all things." This definition has also helped me on many other occasions.

With the help of a practitioner I was healed of a poisoned finger. And through my own work I was healed of a boil in my nose which had caused my face to swell badly. My husband read to me an article from the Christian Science Sentinel, which quoted the words of Jesus (Mark 4:39), "Peace, be still." I went to bed holding to that thought, and when I awoke I was healed.

I can never cease to be grateful to God for a loving father, who devoted a goodly part of his life to the Cause of Christian Science and for the first Christian Science friends I knew. For class instruction, for the increased blessings which follow the annual association meetings, and for the privilege of serving as a First Reader, I am most thankful. My love goes out to our Leader, Mrs. Eddy, who through her writings enables us to understand the Bible and its spiritual significance.

My great desire is to help others to know of her great revelation which has been given to the world.—(Mrs.) Catherine Hutton, Renfrew, Renfrewshire, Scotland.

"THOU wilt light my candle: the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness" (Ps. 18:28). When Christian Science was introduced to me more than ten years ago, this promise was fulfilled in my experience. Indeed this Science appeared to me as a flame of hope, lighting the candle of my understanding, resurrecting me from a dark wilderness. After I had had a mental and physical collapse and materia medica had exhausted its efforts to help me, I turned with complete reliance to Christian Science treatment.

At that time I knew very little about Science; therefore I clung to that which impressed me most. The patient love and fearlessness expressed by the practitioner inspired my faith and calmed my thought. Gradually I saw that the whole experience was the breaking up of worn-out beliefs. As one of our hymns expresses it so clearly (Christian Science Hymnal, No. 412), "The Christ is here, all dreams of error breaking."

After several months I was able to return to my work, although the complete healing took further time and study. The lessons that I learned and the spiritual understanding gained made me realize that I had found the pearl of great price. Words are inadequate to express the magnitude of my gratitude for the healing efficacy of Christian Science. Through my study and application of it, new vistas of thought unfolded. In fact, it was as though an entirely new world had opened up to me.

For years I had searched among other denominations, but I was never satisfied until I entered a Church of Christ, Scientist, and realized that this was to be my church home. Therefore I treasure my membership in The Mother Church and a branch church, as well as the experience of class instruction.

For an outstanding demonstration of the power of God over the effects of accidents, I humbly honor and thank Him. The physical evidence was very alarming, because it included a concussion of the brain, a facial injury, shock, and bodily bruises. I had the help of a steadfast practitioner; and in less than three weeks all this material evidence disappeared into nothingness, and my features were restored to normal. The convincing part of this healing was that I gained such a clear sense of my real selfhood that I knew the material condition was no part of my true being. I felt as though I were above the whole situation, above all fear, doubt, and pain. There was just a conscious sense of spiritual activity and of peace, power, and joy.

Many other blessings and proofs of God's care and guidance have been received through my study and application of Christian Science. The understanding that God is our only employer aided me during trying periods in the business world, and I was helped in numerous problems that arose where I am employed. A new home, with improved conveniences and surroundings, followed the recognition that man lives in consciousness and includes the right idea of home. As Mrs. Eddy expresses it in "Pulpit and Press" (p. 2), "The real house in which 'we live, and move, and have our being' is Spirit, God, the eternal harmony of infinite Soul."

Indeed, my heart rejoices for the discovery of Christian Science, and each day my gratitude increases for Christ Jesus, who demonstrated the way of Truth and eternal Life, and for Mrs. Eddy, the revelator of Truth to this age. My humble gratitude would not be complete without thanking God for all the workers in His vineyard and for all that the Cause of Christian Science is doing for the whole world. Hymn No. 64 best expresses my thought: "My heart is singing: I have found the way."—(Mrs.) Josephine Gothro, Cleveland, Ohio.

IN 1917, when there was an epidemic of infantile paralysis, I was in great fear for my three children. I then remembered that a friend had told me of Christian Science healings in her family through reading a certain book. The thought came to me that if she was able to keep her family and herself well through the study of some book, the name of which was unknown to me, and if I could obtain that book, all would be well with me and mine.

Knowing that a family nearby was interested in Christian Science, I asked if I might borrow from them the book used by Christian Scientists. Science and Health by Mrs. Eddy was lent me, and I read it in the evenings after the children were asleep. In this textbook, I discovered the pearl of great price, the truth I had been searching for. It answered my every question concerning God, man, and life. As I read Science and Health I found myself saying, "Why, that is what I wanted to believe when I was a child." It seemed as if I were returning to home and harmony after long and unhappy wandering; and as I drew near to God, I felt the presence and nearness of divine Love.

Many faults of thinking were healed, and I found it necessary to see my fellow man and myself as in reality perfect children of perfect God, as never having been involved in a material dream of life. Much joy and inspiration came as I released others and myself from material sense bonds and sought to imbibe purity, humility, and childlike acceptance of good.

The fear which had caused me to bind my children to the home was dispelled, and we were able to act with wisdom and freedom of thought. No longer were they kept in the house in cold weather for fear of taking cold; we rejoiced in the knowledge that God is our source of health and happiness and that He does not cause sickness.

I was healed of an inflamed condition of the nasal cavities which had resulted from breathing the fumes of a chemical used in fumigating. My eyes and ears had also been affected, and the sense of taste and smell were gone, but Christian Science restored me to full freedom. Nightmares, caused by fear of the second coming of a personal Jesus, with all the terrifying accompaniments as given in teachings of scholastic theology, had plagued me from childhood. They ceased when I realized that the second coming is the coming of the Christ, Truth, that it is, as Jesus promised it would be, "with power and great glory" (Luke 21:27).

Some years ago a member of my family was going to Alaska by ship. A number of smaller boats, including the one he was on, were being towed by a ship through the straits near the ocean. This member of my family had just come out of the cabin when suddenly his boat was jerked so strongly by the towing ship that he was thrown overboard. No one in the towing ship or the other boats saw him, but as he fell, his hand grasped the railing of the boat, and he was able to get back into the boat. He knew I had been praying for his protection.

At another time this same member of the family was in a plane on its way to an island far off the coast of Alaska. There was trouble with the motors, and a crash landing appeared near. But the plane was able to go on, and it landed safely. We both rejoiced in the protection he had experienced.

Years of seeking to live close to the Manual of The Mother Church by Mrs. Eddy have given me the deepest gratitude for Mrs. Eddy and for her consecrated listening to the voice of God. This enabled her to give to the world Science and Health, whereby we may experience the resurrection from mortal sense and the ascension into spiritual understanding. I have received much help and inspiration through the study of the Bible and our Leader's works, as well as from the help of kind practitioners. For The Mother Church and its officers, for membership in this Church and a branch church, and for class instruction, I am sincerely grateful.—(Mrs.) Helen M. Gormley, Seattle, Washington.

THE first physical healing I witnessed in Christian Science has been a continuous source of spiritual inspiration and joy, for it clearly proved that God is the healer of disease. When my daughter was in kindergarten, she had a severe case of scarlet fever, and many complications followed, including sinus infection and chronic bronchitis. Over a period of nine years she received medical treatment by several specialists and was a hospital patient on many occasions. She always received the latest drugs and medicines. We followed the doctors' advice and on two occasions moved to other climates.

One morning my daughter had an attack with severe symptoms, and by evening it was difficult for her to breathe. The attack continued progressively worse, but I did not call the doctor. A friend of mine came to call, and upon learning of my daughter's condition, he recommended that I try Christian Science. He was so kind and patient it was difficult not to listen while he told me that praying in Christian Science was understanding God's presence and power.

My friend tried to relieve my fear and said it would help for me to think of my daughter as a perfect child of God whom no disease could touch. He said that I could talk with a Christian Science practitioner, but I did not wish to do so. However, I told my friend that if he wished, he might go home and pray for my daughter. He lovingly consented to do so, provided I would go right to bed with no feeling of fear, but just with the thought that everything had been turned over to God.

I did as he requested, and the next thing I heard was the alarm clock ringing the next morning. Instantly panic seized me. I was afraid to look at my daughter lest during the night breathing had become too difficult for her. Never before had either of us slept all night during one of her attacks. To my amazement my daughter jumped out of bed and said she was going to school.

I could not believe she had been entirely healed, but immediately changes in her health and appearance became quite evident. Many times she remarked she could not understand what had happened because she felt so good it was as though she had never been sick. She wanted my permission to take active part in physical education classes at school, and she started making plans for swimming lessons.

Words will never really express the gratitude I have for this experience. Not only was my daughter permanently healed, but I have never experienced a feeling of fear for her health since then. I am grateful to our beloved Leader, Mrs. Eddy, for the spiritual enlightenment thrown on the Bible by our textbook, Science and Health, which helps make our spiritual growth continuous.

A happy and harmonious home has unfolded for me, and it is with the feeling of deepest humility I give my thanks to God. Membership in The Mother Church, all of our periodicals, the lectures, and the Lesson-Sermons in the Christian Science Quarterly are constant blessings.—(Mrs.) Ruth Blizard Hammond, Pasadena, California.

I should like to confirm my mother's testimony with regard to my healing. In the three years since the healing, I have enjoyed excellent health and have had a perfect attendance record in school. I have taken part in various activities such as swimming, diving, and hiking, which previously would not have been possible. I am very grateful to Mary Baker Eddy for giving us Christian Science. Also I wish to express gratitude for membership in The Mother Church and for the privilege of attending a Christian Science Sunday School. My participation in a Christian Science college organization and in The Christian Science Monitor Youth Forum have been added joys.

INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING CARDS LISTED IN THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE JOURNAL AND HERALDS

BRANCH CHURCHES

When members of The Mother Church in a community believe the time has come for the organization of a Christian Science Society, or a branch Church of Christ, Scientist, in accordance with Article XXIII, Sections 6 and 7, of the Manual of The Mother Church, they should write for information to The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Department of Branches and Practitioners, in Boston, Massachusetts.

PRACTITIONERS AND NURSES

The Christian Science Publishing Society accepts for listing in the Christian Science periodicals only the cards of practitioners and nurses who have first been approved by the Board of Directors of The Mother Church. Following this approval a statement of the amount due for the publication of the cards is sent by the Publishing Society.

Applications for cards should be sent to The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Department of Branches and Practitioners, 107 Falmouth Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

Practitioners listed in The Herald of Christian Science published in Dutch, French, German, Scandinavian, and Spanish-Portuguese-Italian editions are required to know the English language sufficiently well to enable them to read the writings of Mary Baker Eddy understandingly, as well as to read, write, and speak the language of the Herald in which their card appears.

If a practitioner will not be available at his address for two months or longer, he should request the Publishing Society to insert the words "for mail only" or request the temporary removal of his card. Nurses listed in the Journal should maintain addresses through which mail will reach them promptly.

Practitioners should promptly notify the Publishing Society of any change of address. As the names published must appear in the same form as on the records of The Mother Church, notice of any change of name should be sent to the Clerk of The Mother Church.

Cards may be removed upon the request of the practitioner or the vote of The Christian Science Board of Directors (Manual of The Mother Church, Article XXV, Section 9), and in such cases, the money due for the unexpired term will be refunded by The Christian Science Publishing Society.

CLERKS

The Christian Science Publishing Society should have an accurate record of the name and address of the clerk duly elected to office in each church and society. All communications from a church or society should be officially signed by its clerk. The name and address of a newly appointed clerk should be forwarded without delay by the retiring clerk.

READING ROOMS

When two or more churches unite in maintaining a Reading Room, a separate card may be published for the Reading Room notice if desired. In all other cases the Reading Room notice is a part of the church card and should give the address and the hours when the rooms are regularly open to the public with an attendant in charge. Reading Rooms are closed on Sundays and holidays unless definite hours for these days are given.

CHARGES AND CHANGES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PRACTITIONERS AND TEACHERS

The practitioners whose cards appear in these columns are members of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and are amenable to its By-Laws. They have presented testimony to The Christian Science Board of Directors of The Mother Church showing that they are qualified as practitioners of Christian Science.

The letters C. S. after a practitioner's name designate one who has had class instruction from an authorized teacher of Christian Science. The letters C. S. B. indicate that the practitioner has been taught by Mrs. Eddy or has taken a course at the Massachusetts Metaphysical College or in the Christian Science Board of Education.

The names of those who are authorized teachers of Christian Science are followed by the word "teacher." They may teach one class of not more than thirty pupils in each calendar year. The teaching of Christian Science is governed by the Church Manual of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, especially by Articles XXVI and XXVII (pages 83-87).

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE NURSES

The nurses whose cards appear in these columns are members of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, U. S. A., and they are amenable to its By-Laws. It is expected that nurses will read Instructions on page 1 of this periodical.

The letters C.S. after a nurse's name designate one who has had class instruction from an authorized teacher of Christian Science.

The asterisk (*) is used to designate those who have completed the course of training for Christian Science nurses at a Christian Science Benevolent Association Sanatorium.

The single dagger (†) is used to designate those who are graduates of other nursing-training courses or have had three consecutive years of Christian Science nursing, including two years of training.

The double dagger (‡) is used to designate those who have had no training course, but have had five years' practical experience in Christian Science nursing.

The words "for mail only" in a nurse's card show that she is regularly employed in a Christian Science nursing home or is not available to respond to calls.
